M DCCC XXXI.

DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS.....to wit.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the twelfth day of January, A. D. 1831, in the fifty-fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Gray and Bowen, of the said District, have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors, in the words following, to wit :

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, “ An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned ” ; and also to an act, entitled, “ An Act, supplementary to an Act entitled ‘ An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned ’ ; and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints.”

PREFACE.

DR. CARPENTER, in his "Introduction to the Geography of the New Testament," has explained his plan for a Harmony of the Four Gospels, giving directions for the construction of such a Harmony, which have been observed in the arrangement of the following pages.

According to prevailing views on the subject, represented in the Harmony of Archbishop Newcome, the ministry of our Lord, beginning with his baptism, comprehended four Passovers, or extended through something more than three years; and in settling the succession of events, recorded by the first three evangelists, the order of Luke deserves a general preference. Dr. Carpenter understands the length of the ministry to have somewhat exceeded one year, including but two Passovers; and prefers the order of Matthew, where it differs from that of Mark and Luke.

These questions open an argument of great extent. A few general statements relating to it are all that would here be in place.

The early writers of the church, who have alluded to this subject, are understood to have been almost unanimously of the opinion maintained by Dr. Carpenter. Authorities to this point may be seen in Mann de Veris Annis Christi Natali et Emortuali. Dissert. 2^a, cap. 12^o.; Marsh's Michaelis, Vol. III. Part II. p. 63; and Sir Isaac Newton's Observations on Daniel, Part I. chapter 11. Irenæus indeed, in the second century, is an exception, extending the ministry to nearly twenty years, and maintaining his opinion from Luke III. 23, John VIII. 57.

Eusebius, in the fourth century, was, as far as appears, the first to start the theory of four Passovers, though he understood the events recorded by the first three evangelists, from the commencement of our Lord's preaching, to have been included within one year.

The phenomena of the Gospels themselves may seem to favor the opinion, which limits the ministry of Jesus to a year and some months. Matthew, Mark, and Luke mention but one Passover; viz. that at which he was crucified. John (11. 23.) distinctly mentions another. By the advocates of the theory of four Passovers, he is understood to speak of yet two others; viz. in v. 1, and vi. 4. He says, (v. 1.) "There was a feast of the Jews;" not defining what feast. For any evidence afforded by the verse, or, apparently, from any other source, it is quite as likely to have been a Pentecost. That it has been supposed to have been a Passover, is perhaps owing to the article being prefixed in some copies to the word rendered feast; the feast, by eminence, being interpreted to be no other than the Passover. But if the various reading were a good one, it would sustain no satisfactory argument of the kind, and the weight of authorities, in this case, is with the text of the common edition.

To reconcile John vi. 4, with that opinion of Christian antiquity, which included but two Passovers in the ministry, different methods have been proposed. Dr. Priestley thought the words, τὸ πάσχο, the Passover, to be an interpolation, and this not only on conjecture, but on the ground, that ancient writers, who were in search of such texts, do not appear to have found the words in their copies. Bishop Pearce conceived the whole verse to be spurious, arguing that it breaks the continuity of the narrative, that nothing in the chapter has relation to any feast, and that John would hardly have repeated an explanation which he had already given. (11. 13.) The strong objection to these solutions of the difficulty is, that they resort to unauthorized alterations of the text.

The method of Dr. Carpenter may appear not only free from objection, but demanded by all the circumstances of the case. The Gospel of John, apparently consisting, as it has been long observed to 'do, of distinct sections, each of which has its date,* there would be the less danger of mistake in a single deviation from a chronological arrangement of the series of these sections. The narrative in John vi. 1–21, has such a close resemblance to that in Matthew xiv. 13–32, that it seems almost impossible to doubt that both evangelists are recording the same succession of events. These events are said by John (vi. 4.) to have occurred when a Passover was nigh, and by Matthew they are placed in a closely connected history of transactions immediately preceding the last Passover, viz. that of the crucifixion; transactions, which might occupy about a month. It seems therefore to be not without good grounds, that Dr. Carpenter, making, as usual, the two passages parallel, recommends, that, to arrange the sections of John in the order of time, the third section, composed of the sixth chapter, be placed between the fifth and sixth, which are divided at chapter xi. 54–55. The references in vi. 4, and xi. 55, are then to the same Passover, and John is found to speak of only two. This argument is strengthened by the consideration of the great difficulty there is in supposing so striking a miracle as that of the feeding of the five thousand to have been wrought before our Lord's presence at the Feast of Tabernacles. (John vii. 2–6.)

Upon the question, which evangelist is to be followed in settling the chronological succession of events, the first obvious thought is, that Matthew and John, apostles of Jesus, and eye-witnesses of the later events, at least, which they record, are more likely to have intended to observe the order of time, than Mark and Luke, who were not his apostles, and do not appear to have been his attendants. Nor does the force of this remark seem to be abated by Luke's declaration (i. 3.) of his purpose to write καθ' ἑξῆς, in order; for the word means only methodically, in distinction from less carefully digested accounts, by no means necessarily implying, that the method which he undertook to pursue was that of time. Moreover, except in the case of John vi. which has been explained above, the order of this evangelist is not inconsistent with that of Matthew. So that the plan proposed offers the great advantage of adopting, for the chronological order of events in a Harmony, the order in which they are recorded by both of the only evangelists, who are known to have had opportunity to record from their own observation.

Proceeding on these principles, Dr. Carpenter places (pp. 20–25 of this volume) the first Passover, recorded by John, with the previous connected events, next subsequent (John i. 32, 33.) to the baptism of Jesus, recorded by the first three evangelists. After the baptism and temptation, Matthew relates nothing till (iv. 12.) the departure of Jesus into Galilee, on hearing of the imprisonment of John the Baptist. Now that John the Baptist was not in prison at the time of the transactions recorded in the third and fourth chapters of John's Gospel, appears from John iii. 24, and iv. 1. This portion of John's Gospel, then, is to be placed before the departure into Galilee. Again, this departure seems to have been subsequent to the Feast of Tabernacles; because, after the miracles with which Jesus astonished "all Galilee" (Matthew iv. 23, 24.) on his arrival there, his brethren could have had no pretext for speaking of his proceeding "in secret," as they are represented to have done at the time of that feast in John vii. 4; besides that we have no means of accounting for Matthew's omitting to mention that Jesus went to a Feast of Tabernacles, had this occurred after Matthew takes up so minutely, at iv. 12, the history of his public ministry. Accordingly, before Matthew's account of this departure, Dr. Carpenter has placed John's mention of the Feast of Tabernacles, vii. 2; and as from that point the narrative of John appears unbroken as far as x. 21, and there is nothing to object to the arrangement, the extract from John is continued to that point. (pp. 26–39.) The period herein accounted for, besides the Feast of Tabernacles, embraces an earlier feast (v. 1.), which, on this theory, was a Pentecost; our Lord accordingly appearing to have "fulfilled all righteousness," in being present at Jerusalem at every great festival during his ministry; viz. at the Passover in March or April succeeding his baptism (John II. 23.); the Pentecost, in May (v. 1.); the Tabernacles, in September (VII. 2.); and the Dedication, in November or December (x. 22.) According to the common hypothesis, out of twelve great festivals, which occurred between our Lord's baptism and his crucifixion, he kept but five at the holy city.

The narrative of Matthew, beginning (IV. 12.) with the departure of Jesus into Galilee, after the Feast of Tabernacles, appears to be uninterrupted as far as chapter x. which records the mission of the twelve with their instructions. (pp. 40 - 81.) Now if the Feast of Dedication, mentioned by John (x. 22.), had taken place at any time between these two events, we cannot account for Matthew's omitting to mention it. And as, for the same reason, it cannot well be placed between Jesus's hearing of the death of John (Matthew XIV. 13.) and the crucifixion Passover, it is naturally referred to the time, when Matthew, with other apostles, was absent from Jesus. John, indeed, from the accuracy of his relation, may seem to have been with him at that feast; but it is not natural, nor have we any authority, to suppose, that all the apostles rejoined him at the same time; and if Thomas and others (XI. 16.) were with him not long after, it was not till Jesus had gone "away again beyond Jordan," after the feast, and "there abode." (x. 40.) The narrative of Matthew, accordingly, is followed from the departure into Galilee, after the Feast of Tabernacles, to the mission of the twelve. After this, at a time when Matthew was probably absent, is placed John's account of Jesus's journey to Jerusalem to the Feast of Dedication, followed by the events connected with it by that evangelist (pp. 87 - 91.) as far as XI. 55., where he introduces a new date. Next (after an arrangement, in Matthew's order, of events, which occurred near, both before and after, the mission of the twelve and the Dedication Feast, pp. 82 - 86, 91 - 110,) comes the succession of events from Jesus's feeding of the five thousand, detailed by Matthew in a closely connected narrative, from xiv. 13, down to xxi., which begins the crucifixion week. (pp. 110-154.)

It was remarked, that the scheme proposed by Dr. Carpenter, and adopted in the following pages, offers the advantage of pursuing the order of both those evangelists, who were also apostles of our Lord. An examination of the table of chapters will show to what extent this has been done. Some of the few apparent deviations are not such in reality. The passages in Matthew iv. 17 (page 40), and x. 2, &c. (page 74), are but transferred a little from their place for the sake of giving a more convenient continuity to the language, the historical order remaining unaffected. Matthew xiv. 3, &c. (page 40), and xiv. 6, &c. (page 107), relate events introduced by the evangelist himself parenthetically, and professedly out of the order of time, the aorist, properly rendered in our version by the pluperfect tense, being used. In this Harmony they are inserted where they best explain what precedes and follows. John xii. 2-8 (page 191), reserved from page 155, to be made parallel with Matthew xxvi. 6, &c., appears to have been introduced by John early, instead of late, among the events which occurred at Bethany during the last week, the mention of Bethany (John xii. 1.) causing it to be anticipated by a connexion of place.* The same may, perhaps, be said of Matthew xxi. 12, 13 (page 160), which records an event apparently dated by Mark (xi. 12, 15.) on the second day of Jesus's appearance at Jerusalem, instead of the first; though it may admit of a question, whether the order of Matthew should not here rather be observed. Matthew xxvi. 30, is placed (page 204) after xxvi. 35, because it clearly presents part of the same scene with what precedes, while any other disposition of it, with its parallels, would either indicate two visits to the Mount of Olives, or create an inconvenient chasm in the language and sense in Luke xxii. 40, and John xviii. 1. (p. 205.) Again, John xiii. 36, &c. (p. 203), which relates but a different incident of the same scene described in the following chapters, is placed after those chapters, in this volume, to harmonize with the order of the three other evangelists. Three cases only occur, then, of what can properly be accounted deviation from the historical order of either Matthew or John; viz. those of John ch. vi. (p. 111), which has been explained at length; Matthew viii. 14, &c. (p. 44). and Matthew xii. 1, &c. (p. 24.)

It may be doubted whether, in either of these latter cases, a different order requires to be substituted for that of Matthew, though the editor, having undertaken to exhibit the plan of Dr. Carpenter, was not at liberty to make any change. In determining the place to which the former passage, recording the cure of Peter's mother-in-law, should be referred, Dr. Carpenter (Geog. P. II. § 21.) appears to attach some importance to the relation of Mark to Peter, as authorizing in this instance a preference of Mark's chronology; but it is not easy to see why a rule, deduced from this circumstance, if applicable at all, is not to be received to a much wider application. Dr. Priestley (Observations, Sect. xii. § 2.) lays stress on Mark's saying (i. 21. 29-31.) that the cure was performed the sabbath after (i. e. next after) Jesus's arrival at Capernaum; but this it does not distinctly appear that Mark has said. If it was on the first sabbath after his arrival, that Jesus "entered into the synagogue and taught," which is not an unquestionable construction of Mark's words, still it would not be ascertained that the visit to the synagogue there mentioned, is the same with what is indicated in i. 23, 29. Michaelis argues (Vol. III. Part I. p. 84.) that Matthew iv. 25. - viii. 17. records but the events of one day, the same day on which Mark also (i. 29.) relates the cure of Peter's mother-in-law (with the cure of the demoniac (i. 23.), not mentioned by Matthew) to have taken place; and arranging the series of its events, he rejects the order of Mark and Luke for that of Matthew; and Marsh (Part II. p. 69.) agrees with him in referring all the events

there recorded to one day, and understanding them to have taken place according to Matthew's arrangement. It may be added, that though Matthew's account of this miracle precedes his account of his call to be an apostle, nothing is more probable than that, being an inhabitant of Capernaum, and dispensed from his duty as publican on the sabbath, he listened to the discourse which he so particularly records, and was a witness of the remaining wonders of the day; while, on the other hand, as to one of these (Matthew VIII. 2.), Mark (I. 40.) gives no note of the time of its occurrence, and Luke (v. 12.) appears to have been even ignorant of the place.

The walk through the corn-fields, (Matthew XII. 1.) is dated by Luke (VI. 1.) ἐν σάββατῳ δευτεροπρώτῳ, rendered in our version, "on the second sabbath after the first." This (after Wetstein and Storr) is understood by Dr. Carpenter, who disposes the passages accordingly, to signify the first sabbath of the second month, the Passover being in the first month. But the phrase, which is not elsewhere found, is not improbably not genuine, the last word being omitted from some good manuscripts and versions. At all events, it still costs much pains to the critics, and must be owned to be of too unsettled sense to be a sufficient foundation for any argument. Michaelis (Vol. III. Part I. p. 88.) understands the epithet to denote a particular part of any sabbath, or rather of the preceding day, and not the part of the year when the specified sabbath occurred. And even that the plucking of ears of corn supposes a different season of the year from that intervening between the Feast of Dedication and the death of John the Baptist, where Matthew appears to place it, is not perhaps entirely clear. Barley was sown in October. The harvest, which was preceded a full month by the first reaping, is placed by some authorities as early as the vernal equinox; and moreover, it was not full-formed kernels, but ears, perhaps in the milk, (σάχυες, the same word which is used Mark IV. 28, in distinction from the full corn in the ear;) which the disciples are represented to have plucked and eaten. — These thoughts are thrown out with much diffidence, the editor having met with nothing in any writer, which goes to countenance them. But if they be allowed any force, there will be the less reason for assigning to the incident related in Matthew xii. 1-8, a different date from that, (in the month of February, and not certainly early in that month,) to which this evangelist appears to determine it, by the place where it is introduced. It is true that Matthew might not have returned to Jesus, at the time to which he refers, for the mission of the Twelve is related in the second preceding chapter. But the words "at that time" (xii. 1.) connected with what follows, are, for this evangelist, somewhat uncommonly precise; and, at least, if other events recorded in this connexion are to be understood, for the reasons above given, to have taken place in and near the month of February, the placing of this incident in the midst of them, sufficiently indicates that Matthew was not sensible that the plucking of ears of corn would seem an act then out of season. And if only this be admitted, the objection to retaining the passage, in a Harmony, in the same place which it occupies in Matthew's Gospel, will then be done away. It will not need to be violently severed from what, before and after, (xii. 1, 9.) appears to have close connexion with it, and no anomaly will remain in the plan which professes to adopt Matthew's order for a guide.

It remains to say a few words respecting the present publication.

It was undertaken with no other view than to favour the usefulness of a course of expository lectures, which the editor was intending to deliver to a portion of a congregation, to which all services, he could render, have been felt to be due.

The text is that of the Common Version, conformed to Griesbach's edition of the Greek, no other alteration being admitted than such as correspond to the emendations presented in that work.

Much praise is due to the printers for the care which they have bestowed on the arrangement of the page. The difficulty of this, in such a book, cannot, perhaps, be understood by any one, who has not become acquainted with it by the opportunity of experience. If some typographical errors appear, they are immaterial, and will be thought as few as could reasonably have been looked for. Should the work reach a second edition, with the advantage of the first in the hands of the compositor, no such difficulty in attaining typographical exactness will remain.

Horizontal lines indicate that, from the place of their insertion, the narrative or discourse proceeds in the words of a different number of evangelists, from what have furnished the preceding passage. Perpendicular lines show, that, parallel with the passage at their left side, there is a passage of an evangelist who is later in the usual order of the Gospels. Headings, indicating the contents of sections, are avoided, as almost necessarily partaking of the nature of a commentary.

The Calendar (p. 258) is from the last edition of Carpenter's Geography.

Finally, the editor of these pages has to disclaim all title to other credit, than what may be due to some pains taken for their correct arrangement; and to apologize beforehand to the learned and revered author of the plan, if, in undertaking to represent him, he has, in any instance, misunderstood his sense.

EVENTS PRECEDING THE MINISTRY OF JESUS.

LUKE I.

1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in 2 order a declaration of those things which are most surely be-3 lieved among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which 4 from the beginning were eye-witnesses and ministers of the 5 word ; it seemed good to me also, having had perfect under-6 standing of all things from the very first, to write unto thee 7 in order, most excellent Theophilus, that thou mightest know 8 the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been in-9 structed.

JOHN I.

1 IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with 2 God, and the Word was God. The same was in the begin-3 ning with God. All things were made by him ; and without 4 him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, 5 and the life was the light of men ; and the light shineth in 6 darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. — There 7 was a man sent from God, whose name was John ; the same 8 came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all 9 men through him might believe. He was not that Light, 10 but was sent to bear witness of that Light. — That was 11 the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh 12 into the world. He was in the world, and the world was 13 made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto 14 his own, and his own received him not. But as many as 15 received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of 16 God, even to them that believe on his name ; which were 17 born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the

JOHN I.

14 will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and 15 truth. — John bare witness of him, and cried, saying ;
This was he of whom I spake ; He that cometh after me, 16 is preferred before me ; for he was before me. For of his 17 fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses ; but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.
18 No man hath seen God at any time ; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

LUKE I.

5 THERE was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia ; and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was 6 Elizabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the 7 Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in 8 years. And it came to pass, that, while he executed the 9 priest's office before God in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office his lot was to burn in-10 cense, when he went into the temple of the Lord ; and the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the 11 time of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.
12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear 13 fell upon him. But the angel said unto him ; Fear not, Zacharias ; for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son ; and thou shalt call his name John.
14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall re-15 joice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord ; and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink ; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's 16 womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn 17 to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, 18 to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. And Zacharias said unto the angel ; Whereby shall I know this ? for 19 I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. And the angel answering said unto him ; I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God ; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed ; because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people waited for Zacharias ; and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them ; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple ; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless. — And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house. And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived ; and hid herself five months, saying ; Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days, wherein he looked on me to take away my reproach among men.

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David ; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said ; Hail, thou that art highly favoured ; the Lord is with thee ; blessed art thou among women. And she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her ; Fear not, Mary ; for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest ; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David ; and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel ; How shall this be, seeing I know not a man ? And the angel answered and said unto her ; The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee ; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born, shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age ; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said ; Behold, the handmaid of the Lord ; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

LUKE I.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill-coun-40 try with haste, into a city of Juda. And she entered into 41 the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was 42 filled with the Holy Ghost, and she spake out with a loud voice, and said; Blessed art thou among women; and bless-43 ed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, 44 that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the 45 babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things 46 which were told her from the Lord. — And Mary 47 said; My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath 48 rejoiced in God my Saviour; for he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For behold, from henceforth, all 49 generations shall call me blessed; for he that is mighty 50 hath done to me great things; and holy is his name, and his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to genera-51 tion. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted 53 them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good 54 things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. He hath 55 holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, (as he spake to our fathers,) to Abraham, and to his seed, for 56 ever. — And Mary abode with her about three months; and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came that she should be deliv-58 ered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great 59 mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. — And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circum-cise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the 60 name of his father. And his mother answered and said; 61 Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her; There is none of thy kindred that is called by this 62 name. And they made signs to his father, how he would 63 have him called. And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying; His name is John. And they marvelled 64 all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his 65 tongue loosed; and he spake, and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them; and all these say-

LUKE I.

ings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of 66 Judea. And all they that heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying ; What manner of child shall this be ? And 67 the hand of the Lord was with him. — And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, 68 saying ; Blessed be the Lord God of Israel ; for he hath 69 visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David ; 70 (as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which 71 have been since the world began ;) that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us ; 72 to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remem-73 ber his holy covenant, the oath which he sware to our father 74 Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him with-75 out fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all our 76 days. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest ; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to 77 prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation unto his 78 people, by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high 79 hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of 80 peace. — And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit ; and was in the deserts, till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

MATTHEW I.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise. When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.
19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away 20 privily. But while he thought on these things, behold the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying ; Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife ; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy 21 Ghost ; and she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS ; for he shall save his people from their 22 sins. (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled 23 which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying ; “ Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel ; ” which being 24 interpreted, is, God with us.) Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him ; 25 and took unto him his wife, and knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son.

MATTHEW I.

LUKE II.

1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be 2 taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was 3 governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into 4 his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house 5 and lineage of David,) to be taxed with Mary his espoused 6 wife, being great with child. — And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she 7 should be delivered. And she brought forth her first born son, and wrapped him in swaddling-clothes, and laid him in a manger ; because there was no room for them in the 8 inn. — And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.
 9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them ; and they were 10 sore afraid. And the angel said unto them ; Fear not ; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be 11 to all people ; for unto you is born this day, in the city of 12 David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you ; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swad-13 dling-clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising 14 God, and saying ; “ Glory to God in the highest, and on 15 earth peace ; good will toward men.” And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another ; Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which 16 the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a 17 manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
 18 And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which 19 were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these 20 things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

LUKE II.

MATTHEW I.

25 And he called his name Jesus.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for his circumcising, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Je-23 rusalem, to present him to the Lord, (as it is written in the law of the Lord ; “ Every male that openeth the womb shall 24 be called holy to the Lord ; ”) and to offer a sacrifice, according to that which is said in the law of the Lord ; “ A pair 25 of turtle doves, or two young pigeons.” — And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon ; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel. And the Holy Ghost was upon him ; 26 and it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord’s Christ.
27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple ; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the 28 custom of the law ; then took he him up in his arms, and 29 blessed God, and said ; Lord, now lettest thou thy servant 30 depart in peace, according to thy word ; for mine eyes 31 have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before 32 the face of all people ; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and 33 the glory of thy people Israel. — And his father and mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.
34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother ; Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be spoken against ; 35 (yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also ;) that 36 the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. — And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Aser ; she was of a great age, and had lived 37 with a husband seven years from her virginity ; and she was a widow of about four-score and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and pray-38 ers night and day. And she, coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

* MATTHEW II.

- 1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men 2 from the east to Jerusalem, saying ; Where is he that is born King of the Jews ? for we have seen his star in the 3 east, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusa-4 lem with him ; and when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of 5 them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him ; In Bethlehem of Judea ; for thus it is written by the 6 prophet ; “ And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda ; for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.” 7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, in-8 quired of them diligently what time the star appeared, and he sent them to Bethlehem, and said ; Go and search diligently for the young child ; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him, 9 also. When they had heard the king, they departed. And, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.
10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great 11 joy ; and when they were come unto the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him, and when they had opened their treasures they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and 12 myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
- 13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying ; Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word ; for Herod will 14 seek the young child, to destroy him. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and de-15 parted into Egypt ; and was there until the death of Herod ; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying ; “ Out of Egypt have I called my son.” 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth ; and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time

MATTHEW II.

17 which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, 18 saying; "In Rama there was a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning; Rachel weeping for her children; and would not be comforted, because they are 19 not." But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the 20 Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying; Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel; for they are dead which sought the 21 young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child 22 and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee.

MATTHEW II.

 it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets;

40 And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.
 41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the 42 feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast; 43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his 44 mother knew not of it. But they, supposing him to have been in company, went a day's journey, and they sought 45 him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking 46 him. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple sitting in the midst of the doctors, both 47 hearing them and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
 48 And when they saw him, they were amazed; and his mother said unto him; Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? be-49 hold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them ; How is it that ye sought me ? wist ye not 1 In those days came John the Baptist preaching in the kingdom of heaven is at Esaias, saying ; "The voice of one crying in the wilderness ; prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his 4 paths straight." And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins ; and his meat was locusts and wild 5 honey. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round 6 about Jordan ; and were baptized of him in Jordan, 7 confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them ; O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to pare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight ;"

 the land of Judea, and all they of Jerusalem ; and were baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing and with a girdle of a skin about his loins, and he did eat locusts and wild honey.

ject unto them. But his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and in favour with God and man.

LUKE III.

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, Annas being high priest, and Caiaphas, the word of God came unto John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying; "The voice of one crying in the wilderness; Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight; Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

10 — And the people asked him, saying; What shall we do then? He answereth and saith unto them; He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him; Master, what shall we do? and he said unto them; Exact no more than that which is appointed you. And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying; And what shall we do? And he said unto them; Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. — And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their

TO JESUS' FIRST MIRACLE.

MATTHEW III.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbade him, saying; I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him; Suffer it to be so now; for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water; and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him. And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying; This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

1 And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan; and was led by the 2 spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the 3 devil. And in those days he did eat nothing; and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. And the 3 devil said unto him; If thou tempter came to him, he said; If thou be the Son of God, command that these he answered and said; It is written; "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." 5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of him; If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down; for it is written; "He shall give his angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy said unto him; It is written again; "Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." 8 Again, the devil taketh him mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, 9 and the glory of them, and saith unto him; All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship be the Son of God, command this stone that it be 5 word of God.” — And the devil, taking him up into a high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of 6 time. And the devil said unto him ; all this power will I give thee, and the glory of them ; for that is delivered unto me, and to whom-7 soever I will, I give it ; if thou therefore wilt worship 8 me, it shall all be thine. And Jesus answered and said unto him ; It is written ; “ Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou 9 serve.” — And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple ; and said unto him ; 10 If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence ; for it is written ; “ He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep 11 thee ; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot

JOHN I.

19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him; Who art thou?
20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed; I am 21 not the Christ. And they asked him; What then? Art thou Elias? and he saith; I am not. Art thou that prophet?
22 And he answered; No. Then said they unto him; Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us; 23 what sayest thou of thyself? He said; I am "The voice of one crying in the wilderness; Make straight the way of the 24 Lord," as said the prophet Esaias. And they which were 25 sent were of the Pharisees; and they asked him, and said unto him; Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, 26 nor Elias, neither that prophet? John answered them, saying; I baptize with water; but there standeth one among 27 you, whom ye know not, even he who cometh after me, 28 whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethany beyond Jordan, where John 29 was baptizing. — The next day he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith; Behold the Lamb of God, which 30 taketh away the sin of the world. This is he, of whom I said; After me cometh a man which is preferred before me; 31 for he was before me. And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come bap-32 tizing with water. And John bare record, saying; I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode 33 upon him. And I knew him not; but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me; Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, 34 the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his 36 disciples. And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith; 37 Behold the Lamb of God. And the two disciples heard 8 him speak, and they followed Jesus. Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them; What seek ye? They said unto him; Rabbi, (which is to say, being 39 interpreted, master,) where dwellest thou? He saith unto them; Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt; and abode with him that day. It was about the 40 tenth hour. One of the two which heard John speak, and 41 followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him; We have found the Messias; (which is, being interpreted, the Christ.)

JOHN I.

- 42 And he brought him to Jesus. When Jesus beheld him, he 43 said ; Thou art Simon, the son of Jona ; thou shalt be called 44 Cephas ; which is by interpretation, a stone. — The day following he would go forth into Gallilee ; and findeth 44 Philip, and saith unto him ; Follow me. Now Philip was of 45 Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him ; We have found him of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Naz-46 areth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him ;
Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth ? Philip 47 saith unto him ; Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him ; Behold an Israelite indeed, in 48 whom is no guile. Nathanael saith unto him ; Whence knowest thou me ? Jesus answered and said unto him ; Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-49 tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and saith unto him ; Rabbi, thou art the son of God, thou art the King of Israel.
50 Jesus answered and said unto him ; Because I said unto thee ; I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou ? thou 51 shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.
2. And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Gal-2 ilee ; and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus 3 was called and his disciples to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him ; 4 They have no wine. Jesus saith unto her ; Woman, what 5 have I to do with thee ? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants ; Whatsoever he saith unto 6 you, do it. And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing 7 two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them ; Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he saith unto them ; Draw out now, and bear unto the 9 governor of the feast. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine ; (and knew not whence it was ; but the servants which drew the water knew ;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him ; Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse ; but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee,

and manifested forth his glory ; and his disciples believed on 12 him. — After this he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples ; and they

PART III.

TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF JESUS' PUBLIC MINISTRY IN GALILEE.

JOHN II.

13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up 14 to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sit-15 ting. And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew 16 the tables; and said unto them that sold doves; Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of mer-17 chandise. And his disciples remembered that it was writ-18 ten; "The zeal of thy house eateth me up." — Then answered the Jews, and said unto him; What sign shewest 19 thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them; Destroy this temple, and in 20 three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews; Forty and six years was this temple in building; and wilt thou 21 rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of 22 his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the 24 miracles which he did. But Jesus did not commit himself 25 unto them, because he knew all men; and needed not that any should testify of man; for he knew what was in
3. man. — There was a man of the Pharisees, named 2 Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; the same came to him by night, and said unto him; Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles 3 that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him; Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
4 Nicodemus saith unto him; How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's 5 womb, and be born? Jesus answered; Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, 6 he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the 7 Spirit, is spirit. Marvel not, that I said unto thee; Ye must 8 be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth; and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of 9 the spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him; How 10 can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him; Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

JOHN III.

 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, we speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our wit-12 ness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not; 13 how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven.
 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even 15 so must the Son of man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but 17 have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him 18 might be saved. He that believeth on him, is not condemned; but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begot-19 ten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather 20 than light; because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light,

MATTHEW XII.

 he went through the cornfields on the sabbath-day, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears said unto him; Behold, why that which is not lawful?

JOHN III.

21 lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon, near to Salin, because there was much water there; and they came, and 24 were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples

26 and a Jew, about purifying. And they came unto John, and said unto him; Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and said;

27 A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from 28 heaven. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said; I am 29 not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly, because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy therefore 30 is fulfilled. He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all. He that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth; he that cometh 32 from heaven is above all, and what he hath seen and heard that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, hath set to his seal that 34 God is true. For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God; for God giveth not the Spirit by measure

35 unto him. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all 36 things into his hand. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

LUKE VI.

1 And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn-fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them; Why do ye that which is not not lawful to do upon the 3 sabbath-day. But he said unto them; Have ye not read what David did, when he was a hungered, and they 4 that were with him? how he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

 5 Or have ye not read, in the law, how that on the Sabbath-days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and 6 are blameless? But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater than the tem-7 ple. But if ye had known what this meaneth; "I will have mercy and not sacrifice;" ye would not have 8 condemned the guiltless. For the Son of man is Lord of the sabbath-day.

MARK II.

25 And he said unto them;
 Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was a hungered, he, and they that were with 26 him; how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? And he said unto 27 them; The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Therefore 28 the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

JOHN IV.

1 When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than 2 John; (though Jesus himself baptized not, but his dis-3 ciples;) he left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.
 4.5 And he must needs go through Samaria. Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.
 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well; and it was about the 7 sixth hour. — There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her; Give me to drink.
 8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy 9 meat.) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him; How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? (For the Jews have no dealings with 10 the Samaritans.) Jesus answered and said unto her; If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee; Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he lawful to do on the sabbath-3 days? And Jesus answering them, said; Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was a hungered, and they which were with him?

 4 how he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests 5 alone? And he said unto them; That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

 JOHN IV.

11 would have given thee living water. The woman saith unto him; Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is 12 deep; from whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob? which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle.
 13 Jesus answered and said unto her; Whosoever drinketh of 14 this water, shall thirst again; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water spring-15 ing up into everlasting life. The woman saith unto him; Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come 16 hither to draw. Jesus saith unto her; Go, call thy hus-17 band, and come hither. The woman answered and said;
 I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her; Thou hast well

JOHN IV.

18 said ; I have no husband. For thou hast had five husbands ; and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband ; in that 19 saidst thou truly. The woman saith unto him ; Sir, I per-20 ceive, that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain ; and ye say that in Jerusalem is the place, 21 where men ought to worship. Jesus saith unto her ; Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this 22 mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what ; we know what we worship ; for 23 salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth ; for the Father seeketh such to worship 24 him. God is a Spirit ; and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto him ; 25 I know that Messias cometh ; (which is called Christ ;) when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto 27 her ; I that speak unto thee am he. And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman.
Yet no man said ; What seekest thou ? or, why talkest 28 thou with her ? — The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men ; 29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did ; 30 is not this the Christ ? They went out of the city, 31 and came unto him. — In the mean while his disciples 32 prayed him, saying ; Master, eat. But he said unto them ; 33 I have meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another ; Hath any man brought him ought 34 to eat ? Jesus saith unto them ; My meat is, to do the will 35 of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest ? Behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes, and look on the 36 fields, for they are white already to harvest. He that reap-eth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal ; that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice 37 together. And herein is that saying true, “one soweth, 38 and another reapeth.” I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour ; other men laboured, and ye are en-39 tered into their labours. — And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified ; He told me all that ever I did.
40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them ; and he abode there 41 two days. And many more believed, because of his own word.

JOHN IV.

42 And they said unto the woman ; Now we believe, not because of thy saying ; for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 Now, after two days he departed thence, and went into 44 Galilee. For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no 45 honour in his own country. Then when he was come into

Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast ; for they also went 46 unto the feast. — So he came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick, at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son ; for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him ; Except ye see signs and 49 wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman saith un-

50 to him ; Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him ; Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went 51 his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met

52 him, and told him, saying ; Thy son liveth. Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him ; Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left 53 him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him ; Thy son liveth. And himself 54 believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus 2 went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheep market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue 3 Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multi-

4 the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water ; whosoever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in,

5 was made whole, of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and 6 eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him ;

7 Wilt thou be made whole ? The impotent man answered him ; Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool ; but while I am coming, another steppeth

JOHN V.

8 down before me. Jesus saith unto him ; Rise, take up thy 9 bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked. And on the same day 10 was the sabbath. — The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured ; It is the sabbath-day ; it is not lawful for 11 thee to carry thy bed. He answered them ; He that made me whole, the same said unto me ; Take up thy bed, and 12 walk. Then asked they him ; What man is that which said 13 unto thee ; Take up thy bed, and walk ? And he that was healed wist not who it was ; for Jesus had conveyed himself 14 away, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him ; Behold, thou art made whole ; sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto 15 thee. The man departed, and told the Jews that it was 16 Jesus which had made him whole. — And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, because he had done these 17 things on the sabbath-day. But Jesus answered them ; My 18 Father worketh hitherto, and I work. Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was his Father, making 19 himself equal with God. Then answered Jesus, and said unto them ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do ; for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise ; 20 for the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth ; and he will shew him greater works 21 than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them ; even so the Son quick-22 eneth whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man ; but 23 hath committed all judgment unto the Son ; that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which 24 hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that hear-eth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is 25 passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God ; and they that hear shall live.
26 For as the Father hath life in himself ; so hath he given to 27 the Son to have life in himself. And he hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of 28 man. Marvel not at this ; for the hour is coming, in the 29 which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and

shall come forth, they that have done good unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. I can of mine own self do nothing. As I hear, I judge ; and my judgment is just ; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of him which hath sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. There is another that beareth witness of me ; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. But I receive not testimony from man ; but these things I say, that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light ; and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. But I have greater witness than that of John ; for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you ; for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life ; and they are they which testify of me ; and ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men ; but I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not ; if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only ? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father ; there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me ; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words ?

VII.

1 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee ; for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. — 2,3 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him ; Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that 4 thou doest. For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If 5 thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. For neither 6 did his brethren believe in him. Then Jesus said unto them ; My time is not yet come ; but your time is alway 7 ready. The world cannot hate you ; but me it hateth, be-

JOHN VII.

8 cause I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. Go ye up 9 unto this feast; I go not up now unto this feast, for my time 10 is not yet full come. When he had said these words unto 11 them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were 12 gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but 13 as it were in secret. — Then the Jews sought him at 14 the feast, and said; Where is he? And there was much 15 murmuring among the people concerning him. For some 16 said; He is a good man; others said; Nay; but he deceiveth 17 the people. Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear 18 of the Jews.

19 Now, about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the 20 temple and taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying; How 21 knoweth this man letters, having never learned? Jesus an-22 swered them, and said; My doctrine is not mine, but his 23 that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of 24 the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of 25 myself. He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own 26 glory; but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same 27 is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses 28 give you the law? and yet none of you keepeth the law; 29 why go ye about to kill me? The people answered and 30 said; Thou hast a devil; who goeth about to kill thee?
 31 Jesus answered and said unto them; I have done one work, and ye all marvel because of it. Moses gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath-day circumsise a man. If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken, are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day? Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. — Then said some of them of Jerusalem; Is not this he whom they seek to kill? but lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him; do the rulers know indeed that this is the Christ? Howbeit, we know this man, whence he is; but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is. — Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying; Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. I know him, for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Then they sought to take him; but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. And many of the people believed on him, and said;

JOHN VII.

When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these 32 which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take 33 him. — Then said Jesus; Yet a little while I am with 34 you, and then I go unto him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, thither ye can-35 not come. Then said the Jews among themselves; Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gen-36 tiles? What manner of saying is this that he said; Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying; If any man thirst, let him come unto me, 38 and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath 39 said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive; for the Holy Ghost was not yet given, be-40 cause that Jesus was not yet glorified. — Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said; Of a 41 truth this is the Prophet. Others said; This is the Christ.
42 But some said; Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said, that Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?
43 So there was a division among the people because of 14 him. — And some of them would have taken him; 45 but no man laid hands on him. Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said unto them; 46 Why have ye not brought him? The officers answered; 47 Never man spake like this man. Then answered them the 48 Pharisees; Are ye also deceived? have any of the rulers, 49 or of the Pharisees believed on him? but this people, who 50 knoweth not the law, believeth; they are cursed. Nicodemus saith unto them, he that came to Jesus by night, being 51 one of them; Doth our law judge any man before it hear 52 him, and know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him; Art thou also of Galilee? search and look, for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

JOHN VIII.

- 1 And every man went unto his own house. Jesus went 2 unto the mount of Olives ; and early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him ; 3 and he sat down and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and 4 when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him ;
Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be 6 stoned ; but what sayest thou ? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though 7 he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them ; He that is without sin 8 among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he 9 stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last ; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her ; Woman, where are those thine 11 accusers ? hath no man condemned thee ? She said ; No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her ; Neither do I condemn thee ; go, and sin no more.
- 12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying ; I am the light of the world ; he that followeth me shall not walk in dark-13 ness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him ; Thou bearest record of thyself ; thy 14 record is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them ; Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true ; for I know whence I came, and whither I go ; but ye cannot tell 15 whence I come, or whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh, 16 I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true ; 17 for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. It is also written in your law ; “ The testimony of two men 18 is true.” I am one that bear witness of myself, and the 19 Father that sent me beareth witness of me. Then said they unto him ; Where is thy Father ? Jesus answered ; Ye neither know me, nor my Father. If ye had known me, ye 20 should have known my Father also. These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple ; and no man laid hands on him, for his hour was not yet come.
- 21 Then said Jesus again unto them ; I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins ; whither I go, ye

JOHN VIII.

22 cannot come. Then said the Jews ; Will he kill himself, 23 because he saith ; Whither I go, ye cannot come ? And he said unto them ; Ye are from beneath, I am from above ; ye 24 are of this world, I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in you sins ; for if ye believe not 25 that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. Then said they unto him ; Who art thou ? And Jesus saith unto them ; Even 26 the same that I said unto you from the beginning. I have many things to say, and to judge of you ; but he that sent me is true ; and I speak to the world those things which I 27 have heard of him. They understood not, that he spake to 28 them of the Father. Then said Jesus unto them ; When ye have lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he ; and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father hath 29 taught me, I speak these things ; and he that sent me is with me ; the Father hath not left me alone, for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.
31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him ; If ye 32 continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed, and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
33 They answered him ; We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man ; how sayest thou ; Ye shall 34 be made free ? Jesus answered them ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.
35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever ; but the 36 Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, 37 ye shall be free indeed. I know that ye are Abraham's seed ; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no 38 place in you. I speak that which I have seen with my Father ; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.
39 They answered and said unto him ; Abraham is our father.
Jesus saith unto them ; If ye were Abraham's children, ye 40 would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard 41 of God ; this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him ; We be not born of fornication ; 42 we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them ; If God were your Father, ye would love me ; for I proceeded forth and came from God ; neither came I of my-43 self, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my 44 speech ? Even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth ; because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own ; for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth me of sin ? if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me ? He that is of God, heareth God's words ; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered, and said unto him ; Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil ? Jesus answered ; I have not a devil, but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory ; there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him ; Now we know that thou hast a devil ; Abraham is dead, and the prophets, and thou sayest ; If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead ? and the prophets are dead ; whom makest thou thyself ? Jesus answered ; If I honour myself, my honour is nothing. It is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God, yet ye have not known him ; but I know him. And if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you. But I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day ; and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him ; Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham ? Jesus said unto them ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, before Abraham was, I am. — Then took they up stones to cast at him ; but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

9 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying ; Master, who did sin ? this man, or his parents, that he was born blind ? Jesus answered ; Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents ; but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day ; the night cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said unto him : Go, wash in the pool of Siloam ; (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came see-

8 ing. — The neighbours therefore, and they which be-9 fore had seen him that he was a beggar, said ; Is not this he 10 that sat and begged ? Some said ; This is he. Others 11 said ; He is like him. But he said ; I am he. Therefore 12 said they unto him ; How were thine eyes opened ? He 13 answered and said ; A man that is called Jesus, made clay 14 and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me ; Go to Siloam, 15 and wash. And I went and washed, and I received sight.
16 Then said they unto him ; Where is he ? He said ; I know 17 not.

18 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was 19 blind. And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the 20 clay, and opened his eyes. Then again the Pharisees also 21 asked him, how he had received his sight. He said unto 22 them ; He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do 23 see. Therefore said some of the Pharisees ; This man is 24 not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath-day.
25 Others said ; How can a man that is a sinner do such mira-26 cles ? And there was a division among them. They say unto 27 the blind man again ; What sayest thou of him, that he hath 28 opened thine eyes ? He said ; He is a prophet. But the 29 Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, 30 and received his sight, until they called the parents of him 31 that had received his sight. And they asked them, saying ; 32 Is this your son, who ye say was born blind ? how then doth 33 he now see ? His parents answered them and said ; We 34 know that this is our son, and that he was born blind ; but 35 by what means he now seeth, we know not ; or who hath 36 opened his eyes, we know not ; he is of age, ask him ; he 37 shall speak for himself. These words spake his parents, be-38 cause they feared the Jews. For the Jews had agreed al-39 ready, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he 40 should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his 41 parents ; He is of age, ask him. — Then again called 42 they the man that was blind, and said unto him ; Give God 43 the praise ; we know that this man is a sinner. He an-44 swered and said ; Whether he be a sinner or no, I know 45 not ; one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
46 Then said they to him again ; What did he to thee ? How 47 opened he thine eyes ? He answered them ; I have told 48 you already, and ye did not hear ; wherefore would ye 49 hear it again ? will ye also be his disciples ? They reviled 50 him, and said ; Thou art his disciple ; but we are Moses'

JOHN IX.

29 disciples. We know that God spake unto Moses ; as for 30 this fellow, we know not from whence he is. The man answered and said unto them ; Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath 31 opened mine eyes. Now we know that God heareth not sinners ; but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth 32 his will, him he heareth. Since the world began was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born 33 blind ; if this man were not of God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him ; Thou wast altogether born in sins ; and dost thou teach us ? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out ; and when he had found him, he said unto him ; Dost thou believe on the 36 Son of God ? He answered and said ; Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him ? And Jesus said unto him ; Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.
38 And he said ; Lord, I believe ; and he worshipped him.
39 And Jesus said ; For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see, and that they which see 40 might be made blind. — And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him ; 41 Are we blind also ? Jesus said unto them ; If ye were blind, ye should have no sin ; but now ye say ; We see ; 10 therefore your sin remaineth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber ; but he that entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of 2 the sheep. To him the porter openeth ; and the sheep hear his voice ; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and 3 leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them ; and the sheep follow him, for they 4 know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him ; for they know not the voice of strangers. — This parable spake Jesus unto them ; but 5 they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again ; Verily, verily, 6 I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers ; but the sheep 7 did not hear them. I am the door ; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find 8 pasture. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy ; I am come that they might have life, and

JOHN X.

11 that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd ; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12 But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep and fleeth ; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth 13 the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and 14 careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd ; and know 15 my sheep, and am known of mine, as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father ; and I lay down my life for the 16 sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold ; them also I must bring ; and they shall hear my voice, and 17 there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might 18 take it again ; no man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself ; I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again ; this commandment have I received of my 19 Father. — There was a division therefore again among 20 the Jews for these sayings. And many of them said ; He hath a devil, and is mad ; why hear ye him ? Others said ; 21 These are not the words of him that hath a devil ; can a devil open the eyes of the blind ?

TO THE MISSION OF THE TWELVE.

MATTHEW IV.

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say ; Repent ; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

XIV.

3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother 4 Philip's wife. For John said unto him ; It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

MARK I.

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of 15 God, and saying ; The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand ; repent ye, and believe the gospel.

VI.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife, for he 18 had married her. For John had said unto Herod ; It is not lawful for thee to have 19 thy brother's wife. Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him ; but she could 20 not. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy ; and observed him ; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of 16 all. — And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up ; and, as his custom was on the sabbath-day, he went into the synagogue ; and stood up for to read.
17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias ; and when he had opened the book, he found 18 the place where it is written ; “ The Spirit of the Lord is 22 in your ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and 23 they said ; Is not this Joseph's son ? And he said unto them ; Ye will surely say unto me this proverb ; “ Physician, heal thyself ; ” whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do 24 also here in thy country. And he said ; Verily I say unto 25 you, no prophet is accepted in his own country. But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six 26 months, when great famine was throughout all the land ; but unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city 27 of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet ; and none of 28 them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian. — And all the city; and led him unto the brow of the hill, whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong;

MATTHEW IV.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and 15 Esaias the prophet, saying; "The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtalim, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, 16 Galilee of the Gentiles, the people which sat in darkness, saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up."

LUKE V.

1 And it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennes- 2 aret; and saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were wash- 3 ing their nets. And he en- tered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land; and he sat down, and taught the people out of the 4 ship. — Now, when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon; Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. 5 And Simon, answering, said unto him; Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless, at thy word I will let down 6 the net. And when they had this done, they enclosed	a great multitude of fishes; 7 and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come, and help them; and they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began 8 to sink. When Simon Pe- ter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying; De- part from me, for I am a sin- 9 ful man, O Lord. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so was also 10 James and John the sons of Zebedee, which were part- ners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon; Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt 11 catch men. And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

And Simon and they that were with him followed after him. And when they had found him, they said unto him; All men seek for thee. And he said unto them; Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for therefore came I forth. And he preached in their synagogues, throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

- good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world.

MATTHEW V.

15 A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid ; neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick ;
16 and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. —
17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets ; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven ; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
18 For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.
19 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time ; “ Thou shalt not kill ; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment.” But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment ; and whosoever shall say to his brother : Raca, shall be in danger of the council ; but whosoever shall say ; 20 thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy 21 brother hath aught against thee ; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him ; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.
22 Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. Ye have heard that it hath been said ; “ Thou shalt not commit adultery.” But I say unto you, that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee ; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole 23 body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee ; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy 24 whole body should be cast into hell. It hath been said ; 25 “ Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a

MATTHEW V.

32 writing of divorcement." But I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whosoever shall 33 marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery. Again ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time;
 "Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the 34 Lord thine oaths." But I say unto you, swear not at all by 35 heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great 36 King; neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou 37 canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be; yea, yea; nay, nay; for whatsoever is more 38 than these, cometh of evil. Ye have heard that it hath been said; "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth."

MATTHEW V.

LUKE VI.

39 But I say unto you, that ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the 40 other also; and if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him 41 have thy cloak also; and whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
 42 Give to him that asketh thee; and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not 43 thou away. Ye have heard that it hath been said;
 "Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy." But I say unto you, 44 love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which 45 despitefully use you and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven; for he maketh his sun to rise on 27 But I say unto you which hear; Love your enemies; do good to them which hate 28 you; bless them that curse you; pray for them which 29 despitefully use you. Unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not 30 to take thy coat also. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh 31 them away thy goods, ask them not again. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them like-32 wise. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also 33 love those that love them. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what 34 thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just 46 and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the 47 same? and if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not 48 even the heathen so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to re-35 ceive as much again. But love ye your enemies, and do good and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest; for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the 36 evil. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

MATTHEW VI.

1 Take heed that ye do not your acts of righteousness before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of 2 your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they 3 have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy 4 left hand know what thy right hand doeth; that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, him-5 self shall reward thee openly. — And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto 6 you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou pray-est, enter into thy closet, and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father, which 7 seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do; for they 8 think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them; for your Father knoweth 9 what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye; Our Father, which art in heaven, 10 hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be 11 done, in earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily 12 bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; 13.14 and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will 15 also forgive you; but if ye forgive not men their trespasses,

MATTHEW VI.

neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. — 16 Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance ; for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have 17 their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine 18 head, and wash thy face ; that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret ; and thy Father, 19 er, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee. — Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal ; 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break 21 through nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will 22 your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye. If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of 23 light ; but if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how 24 great is that darkness ! No man can serve two masters ; for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot 25 serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you ; Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not 26 the life more than meat, and the body than raiment ? Behold the fowls of the air, for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns ; yet your heavenly Father 27 feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they ? Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature ?
 28 And why take ye thought for raiment ? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow ; they toil not, neither do they 29 spin ; and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his 30 glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe 31 you, O ye of little faith ? Therefore take no thought, saying ; What shall we eat, or what shall we drink, or where-32 withal shall we be clothed ? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek ; for your heavenly Father knoweth that 33 ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ; and all these things 34 shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow ; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

MATTHEW VII.

1 Judge not, that ye be not 2 judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete, it shall be 3 measured to you. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
 4 or how wilt thou say to thy brother; Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye;
 and, behold, a beam is in 5 thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye. — 6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine; lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again 7 and rend you. — Ask, and it shall be given you;
 seek, and ye shall find;
 knock, and it shall be opened 8 unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall 9 be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give 10 him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he give him a ser-11 pent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give

LUKE VI.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged; condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned; forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. Give, and 38 it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give unto your bosom; for with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be

 39 And he spake a parable unto them; Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
 40 The disciple is not above his master; but every one that is perfect, shall be as 41 his master. — And why beholdest thou the mote that
 is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? either 42 how canst thou say to thy brother; Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye; when thou thyself beholdest not the beam
 that is in thine own eye?
 Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's 43 eye. For a good tree bring-neither doth a corrupt tree every tree is known by his own fruit; for of thorns men good things to them that ask 12 him? Therefore all things, whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

 13 — Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction; and many there be 14 which go in thereat. How strait is the gate, and narrow the way, which leadeth unto life! and few there be 15 that find it. — Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing; but inwardly they are 16 ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits.
 Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth 18 forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
 19 Every tree, that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire.
 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye 21 shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me; Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heav-22 en. Many will say to me in that day; Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil; for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. — 46 And why call ye me Lord, Lord; and do not the things 47 which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom 48 he is like. He is like a man which built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was found-that heareth and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built a house up-the stream did beat vehemently; and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

2 And behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying; Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying; I will, be thou clean; and immediately his leprosy was 4 cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him; See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift, that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine. For 29 he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

8 When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy ; who, seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying ; Lord, if thou wilt, thou 14 from him. And he charged him to tell no man ; but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testithey came to him from every centurion answered and said; Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof; but speak in a word only, and my servant shall under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this man; Go, and he go-

MATTHEW VIII.

I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not 11 in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the 12 kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping, and gnashing of 13 teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion; Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

LUKE VII.

that thou shouldest enter under my roof; wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee; but say in a word, and my servant 8 shall be healed. For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers; and I say unto one; Go, and he goeth; and to another; Come, and he cometh; and to my servant; Do this, and 9 he doeth it. When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him; and turned him about and said unto the people that followed him; I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not 10 in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

 14 had compassion on her, and said unto her; Weep not. And he came and touched the bier; and they that bare him stood still. And he said; Young man, I say unto thee, arise.
 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak; and he 16 delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying; That a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited his people.

MATTHEW VIII.

Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.
 19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him; Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him; The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where 21 to lay his head. And another of his disciples said unto him; Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.
 22 But Jesus said unto him; Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.
 23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves; but he was asleep.
 25 And the disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying; Lord, save us, we perish.
 26 And he saith unto them; Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a 27 great calm. But the men marvelled, saying; What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

MARK IV.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them; Let us pass over unto the other side.
 36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship; and there were also with him other ships.
 37 And there arose a great storm of wind; and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was 38 now full. And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow; and they awake him, and say unto him; Master, carest thou not that 39 we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea; Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great 40 calm. And he said unto them; Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have 41 no faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another; What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

LUKE VII.

8 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

LUKE VIII.

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples ; and he said unto them ; Let us go over unto the other side of the lake.

But as they sailed, he fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying ; Master, master, we perish. Then he arose and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water ; and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them ; Where is your faith ? And they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another ; What manner of man is this, for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him ?

IX.

57 And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him ; Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him ; Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests ; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. —

59 And he said unto another ; Follow me. But he said ; Lord, suffer me first to go

60 and bury my father. Jesus said unto him ; Let the dead bury their dead ; but go thou and preach the kingdom of

61 God. — And another also said ; Lord, I will follow thee ; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at 62 home at my house. And Jesus said unto him ; No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

VIII.

22 And they launched forth.

MATTHEW VIII.

28 And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might 29 pass by that way. And, behold, they cried out, saying; What have we to do with thee, thou son of God? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time?
 30 And there was a good way off from them a herd of 31 many swine feeding. So the devils besought him, saying; If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of 32 swine. And he said unto them; Go. And when they were come out, they went into the swine. And, behold, the whole herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the 33 waters. And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the 34 devils. And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.
 9 1 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

MARK V.

1 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an 2 unclean spirit, who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, 3 no, not with chains, because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in 4 pieces; neither could any 5 man tame him; and always, night and day, he was in the tombs, and in the mountains, crying, and cutting himself 6 with stones. But when he saw Jesus afar off, he came, 7 and worshipped him; and cried with a loud voice, and said; What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that 8 thou torment me not. (For he said unto him; Come out of the man, thou unclean 9 spirit.) And he asked him; What is thy name? And he saith to him; My name is Legion; for we are many.
 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.
 11 Now there was there, nigh unto the mountain, a great 12 herd of swine feeding. And the devils besought him,

LUKE VIII.

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Gali-27 lee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in 28 the tombs. When he saw Jesus he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said; What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most 29 high? I beseech thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man; for oftentimes it had caught him; and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into 30 the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying; What is thy name? And he said; Legion; because many devils were entered into him.
31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the deep.
32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain; and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered 33 them. Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine; and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, saying ; Send us into the swine that we may enter into 13 them. And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine ; and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea ; they were about two thousand ; and were chok-14 ed in the sea. And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that 15 was done. And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind ; and they were 16 afraid. And they that saw it told them how it befel to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concern-17 ing the swine. And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts. And 18 when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with 19 him. And he suffered him not, but saith unto him ; Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on 20 thee. And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him ; and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was pass-

- 35 country. Then they went out to see what was done ; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind ; and they were afraid.
- 36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils
- 37 was healed. Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about, besought him to depart from them ; for they were taken with great fear. And he went up into the ship, and
- 38 returned back again. Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be
- 39 with him. But Jesus sent him away, saying ; Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done unto him.

MATTHEW IX.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed. And Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.
3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves; This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said; Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier? to say; Thy sins be forgiven? or to say; 4 Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins; (then saith he to the sick of the palsy;) Arise, take up thy bed, and 5 go unto thine house. And he arose, and departed to 6 his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

MARK II.

1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that 2 he was in the house. And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door; and he preached the word unto 3 them. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne 4 of four. And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof, where he was; and when they had broken it up, they let down 5 the palsy lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, 6 thy sins be forgiven. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts; 7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? And immediately when 8 Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them; Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

LUKE V.

- 17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee and Judea, and Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.
- 18 And behold, men brought in a bed, a man which was taken with a palsy; and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before
- 19 him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the
- 20 midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith he said; Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes
- 21 and the Pharisees began to reason, saying; Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sins but
- 22 God alone? But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he, answering, said unto them; What reason ye in
- 23 your hearts? Whether is casier? to say; Thy sins be forgiven thee? or to say;

MARK II.

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and he saith unto him; Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it they said unto his disciples; Why eateth your Master with 11 publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them; They that 12 fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea-side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him; Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they 16 followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with the publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples; How is it that he eateth and drink-

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth; "I will have mercy, and not sacrifice." For I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying; Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them; Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in that day.

21 No man seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they spake also a parable unto them ; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old ; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not new wine into old bottles ; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be

As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue; Be not afraid, only believe. And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. And when he was come in, he saith unto them; Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was. 13 prayer to God. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples ; and of them he chose twelve, whom also 14 he named apostles ; (Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and 15 Bartholomew, Matthew, and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called 16 the zealot, and Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the 17 traitor ;) and he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be heal-18 ed of their diseases ; and they that were vexed with unclean spirits ; and they 19 were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him ; for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

IX.

1 Then he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.
2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to 3 heal the sick. And he said unto them ; Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor scrip, neither bread

MATTHEW X.

1 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying ; Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter

6 ye not. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house

7 of Israel. And, as ye go, preach, saying ; The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils ; freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass, in your purses ;

10 nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet a staff. For the workman is worthy of 11 his meat. And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy ; and there abide 12 till ye go thence. And when ye come into a house, salute

13 it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it ; but if it be not worthy, let your peace re-

14 turn to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

shod with sandals ; and put 10 not on two coats. And he said unto them ; in what place soever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart from that place. And you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence shake off the neither money ; neither have 4 two coats a piece. And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence 5 depart. And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

MATTHEW X.

15 Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that 16 city. — Behold I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves. Be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as 17 doves. But beware of men. For they will deliver you up to councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues ; 18 and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak ; for it shall be given you in that same hour 20 what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the 21 Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child ; and the children shall rise up against their 22 parents, and cause them to be put to death ; and ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But he that 23 endureth to the end shall be saved. But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another ; and if they persecute you out of this, flee ye into another. For verily I say unto you, ye shall not have gone over the cities of 24 Israel till the Son of man be come. The disciple is not 25 above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the Master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his 26 household ? Fear them not therefore. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed ; and hid that shall 27 not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in the light ; and what ye hear in the ear, that preach 28 ye upon the house-tops. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul ; but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing ? and one of them 30 shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the 31 very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore ; ye are of more value than many sparrows.
32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will 33 I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny 34 before my Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to send peace on earth ; I came not to send peace, but 35 a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the

MATTHEW X.

36 daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law ; and a man's foes 37 shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me ; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of 38 me ; and he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after 39 me, is not worthy of me. He that findeth his life, shall lose it ; and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall find it.
 40 He that receiveth you, receiveth me ; and he that receiveth 41 me, receiveth him that sent me. He that receiveth a prophet, in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward ; and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.
 42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

MARK VI.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should 13 repent ; and they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

LUKE IX.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing every where.

PART V.

TO THE RETURN OF THE TWELVE.

MATTHEW XI.

1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of 3 his disciples, and said unto him; Art thou he that should come, or do we look

4 for another? Jesus answered and said unto them; Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and

5 see; the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the 6 deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them;

7 and blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. — And, as they departed, Jesus began to say

8 unto the multitudes concerning John; What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the 9 wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing

10 are in king's houses. But what went ye out for to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto 11 you, and more than a proph-

LUKE VII.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these 19 things. And John, calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them unto Jesus, saying; Art thou he that should come, or look we for 20 another? — When the men were come unto him, they said; John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying; Art thou he that should

21 come, or look we for another? And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many

22 that were blind he gave sight. Then Jesus answering, said unto them; Go your way, and tell John what things ye

23 have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the 24 gospel is preached. And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

25 — And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John; What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? a reed shaken with the

MATTHEW XI.

10 et. For this is he of whom it is written; "Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee."
 11 Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied, until John. And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.
 15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, and saying; We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. For John came neither eating nor drinking; and they say; 19 He hath a devil. The Son of man came eating and drinking; and they say; Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But Wisdom is justified of of her children.

in soft raiment? Behold they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye out for to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written; "Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee."
 28 For I say unto you, among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist; but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he. And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.
 31 Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying; We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept. For John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say; He hath a devil. The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say; Behold, a glut-

tonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans

LUKE X.

1 After these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them ; The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few ; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways ; behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes ; and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say ; Peace be to this house. And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it ; if not, it shall turn to you

MATTHEW XI.

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not ;
21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin, woe unto thee, Bethsaida ! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say unto you ; It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than 23 for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell ; for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have 24 remained until this day. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day

LUKE X.

12 I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for 13 that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin ; woe unto thee, Bethsaida ! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and 14 ashes. But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than 15 for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down 16 to hell. He that heareth you, heareth me ; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me ; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

is justified of all her children.

7 again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give ; for the labourer is worthy of his 8 hire ; go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you, eat such things as are set be-9 fore you, and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them ; The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say ; 11 Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you ; notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh.

of judgment, than for thee.
25 — At that time Jesus answered and said ; I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto 26 babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy 27 sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father ; and no man knoweth the Son but the Father ; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will re-28 veal him. Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give 29 you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me ; for I am meek and lowly in heart ; and ye shall find 30 rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

LUKE XVII.

11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off. And they lifted up their voices, and said ; Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them ; Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God ; and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks ; and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering, said ; Were there not ten cleansed ? but where are the nine ? Are there not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger ? And he said unto him ; Arise, go thy way ; thy faith hath made thee whole.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying ; Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life ?

26 He said unto him ; What is written in the law ? how readest thou ? And he answering said ; “ Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind ; and thy neighbour as thyself.” And he said unto him ; Thou hast answered right ; this do and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus ; And who is my neighbour ? And Jesus answering, said ; A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves ; which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way ; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

31 And he went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine ; and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence and gave them to the host, and said unto him ; Take care of him ; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves ? And he said ;

LUKE X.

He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him ;
Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village ; and a certain woman, named Martha, received 39 him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which 40 also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving ; and came to him and said ; Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve 41 alone ? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her ; Martha, Martha, thou art 42 careful and troubled about many things ; but one thing is needful. And Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

JOHN X.

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and 23 it was winter ; and Jesus walked in the temple, in Solomon's 24 porch. Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him ; How long dost thou make us to doubt ? If thou 25 be the Christ, tell us plainly. — Jesus answered them ;
I told you, and ye believed not. The works that I do in 26 my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not ; because ye are not of my sheep. As I said unto 27 you, my sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they 28 follow me ; and I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.
29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all ; and 30 none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand ; I and 31 my Father are one. — Then the Jews took up stones 32 again to stone him. Jesus answered them ; Many good works have I shewed you from my Father ; for which of 33 those works do ye stone me ? The Jews answered him, saying ; For a good work we stone thee not ; but for blasphemy, and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself 34 God. Jesus answered them ; Is it not written in your law ; 35 " I said, ye are gods ? " If he called them gods, unto whom 36 the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken ; say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world ; Thou blasphemest, because I said I am the Son of 37 God ? If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works ; that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and

JOHN X.

- 39 I in him. — Therefore they sought again to take him ; but he escaped out of their hand.
- 40 And he went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where 41 John at first baptized ; and there he abode. And many resorted unto him, and said ; John did no miracle ; but all things that 42 John spake of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

LUKE X.

- 17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying ; Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.
- 18 And he said unto them ; I beheld Satan as lightning fall 19 from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy ; 20 and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you ; but 21 rejoice because your names are written in heaven. — In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said ; I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes ; even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy 22 sight. All things are delivered to me of my Father ; and no man knoweth who the Son is but the Father ; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal 23 him. And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately ; Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye 24 see. For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

JOHN XI.

- 1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethany, 2 the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet 3 with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying ; Lord, behold, he whom thou 4 lovest is sick. When Jesus heard that, he said ; This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of 5 God might be glorified thereby. Now Jesus loved Martha, 6 and her sister, and Lazarus. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place 7 where he was. Then after that saith he to his disciples ;

JOHN XI.

8 Let us go into Judea again. His disciples say unto him ; 9 Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou 10 thither again ? Jesus answered ; Are there not twelve hours 11 in the day ? if any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, 12 because he seeth the light of this world ; but if a man walk 13 in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
14 These things said he ; and after that he saith unto them ; 15 Our friend Lazarus sleepeth ; but I go that I may awake 16 him out of sleep. Then said his disciples ; Lord, if he 17 sleep, he shall do well. Howbeit Jesus spake of his death ; 18 but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
19 Then said Jesus unto them plainly ; Lazarus is dead ; 20 and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the in-21 tent ye may believe ; nevertheless let us go unto him. Then 22 said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-dis-23 ciples ; Let us also go, that we may die with him.
24 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the 25 grave four days already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Je-26 rusalem, about fifteen furlongs off ; and many of the Jews 27 came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their 28 brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was 29 coming, went and met him ; but Mary sat still in the house.
30 Then said Martha unto Jesus ; Lord, if thou hadst been here, 31 my brother had not died ; but I know that even now, what-32 soever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. Jesus saith unto her ; Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him ; I know that he shall rise again, in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her ; I am the resurrection and the life ; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live ; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this ?
She saith unto him ; Yea, Lord ; I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying ; The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the town ; but was in that place where Martha met him.) The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying ; She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him ; Lord, if thou hadst been here, my 33 brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he 34 groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, and said ; Where have ye laid him ? They say unto him ; Lord, come and 35.36 see. Jesus wept. Then said the Jews ; Behold how he 37 loved him ! And some of them said ; Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even 38 this man should not have died ? Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a 39 stone lay upon it. Jesus said ; take ye away the stone.

 Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him ;
 Lord, by this time he stinketh ; for he hath been dead four 40 days. Jesus saith unto her ; Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God ?
 41 Then they took away the stone. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said ; Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard 42 me. And I knew that thou hearest me always ; but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe 43 that thou hast sent me. And when he thus had spoken, he 44 cried with a loud voice ; Lazarus, come forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes ; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Je-

MATTHEW XII.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their 10 synagogues. And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying ; Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days ? that they might ac-11 cuse him. And he said unto them ; What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and 12 lift it out ? How much then is a man better than a sheep ?
 Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.

MARK III.

1 And he entered again into the synagogue ; and there was a man there which had 2 a withered hand ; and they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day, that they might ac-3 cuse him. And he saith unto the man which had the with-4 ered hand ; Stand forth. And he saith unto them ; Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath-days, or to do evil ?
 to save life, or to kill ? But 5 they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hard-

JOHN XI.

45 sus saith unto them ; Loose him, and let him go. — Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the 46 things which he did, believed on him. But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said ; What do we ? for this man doeth many 48 miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him ; and the Romans shall come, and take away both our 49 place and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them ; Ye know 50 nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole na-51 tion perish not. And this spake {he not of himself ; but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should 52 die for that nation ; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that 53 were scattered abroad. Then from that day forth they took 54 counsel together for to put him to death. — Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim ; and there continued with his disciples.

LUKE VI.

6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught ; and there was a man whose right hand was

What is lawful on the sabbath-days? to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto him; Stretch forth thy hand. of the multitude, lest they should throng him. For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed upon him, for to touch him, as many as had plagues. And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying; Thou art the Son of God. And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb; and it came to pass when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. But some of them said; He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils; and others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them; Every kingdom

MATTHEW XII.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them; Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. He that is not with me, is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say unto you; All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand; and if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand; and if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily I say unto you, all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and the blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme; but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation. Because they said; He hath an unclean spirit.

divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace; but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

MATTHEW XII.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good ; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt ; for the tree 34 is known by his fruit. O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things ? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth 35 speaketh. A good man, out of the good treasure, bringeth forth good things ; and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil 36 things. But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the 37 day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying ; Master, we would 39 see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them ; An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas.

1 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea-side ; and great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat ; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying ; Behold, a sower went forth to sow. And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side ; and the fowls came and devoured them up. Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth ; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth ; and when the sun was up, they were scorched ; and because they had not root, they withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprung up,

IV.

1 And he began again to teach by the sea-side ; and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship and sat in the sea ; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine ; Hearken ; Behold, there went out a sower to sow. And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side ; and the fowls came and devoured it up. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth ; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth. 6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and, because it had no root, it withered away. LUKE VIII.

4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city he spake by a parable ; A sower went out to sow his seed ; and as he sowed, some fell by the way side ; and it was trodden, down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock ; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns ; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground ; and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundred fold. When he had said these things, he cried ; He that hath ears to hear let him hear.

MATTHEW XIII.

8 and choked them. But other fell into good ground ; and brought forth fruit, some an hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. — And the disciples came, and said unto him ; Why speakest thou unto them in parables ? He answered and said unto them ; Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven ; but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance ; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables, because they seeing see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith ; “ By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive. For this people’s heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.”

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see ; and your ears, among thorns ; and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And other fell on good ground ; and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased ; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. And he said ; He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. — And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable. And he said unto them ; Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God ; but unto them that are without all these things are done in parables ; that seeing they may see, and not perceive ; and hearing they may hear, and not understand ; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said unto them ; Know ye not this parable ? and how then will ye know all parables ? The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness ; and have no root

LUKE VIII.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying ; What might 10 this parable be ? And he said ; Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God ; but to others in parables ; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this ;
The seed is the word of 12 God. Those by the wayside, are they that hear ; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out their hearts, lest they should 13 believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy ; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall

MATTHEW XIII.

17 for they hear. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard 18 them. — Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart; this is he which received seed by

20 the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon

21 with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offend-

22 ed. He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word; and he be-

23 cometh unfruitful. But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

in themselves, and so endure but for a time; afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offend-

18 ed. And others are they which are sown among thorns; these are they who

19 hear the word, and the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word; and it becometh unfruitful. And 20 these are they which are sown on good ground, such as hear the word, and receive it; and bring forth fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

LUKE VIII.

- 14 away. And that which fell among thorns, are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
- 15 But that on the good ground are they which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

MARK IV.

21 And he said unto them; Is a candle brought to put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

22 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them; Take heed what ye hear. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you.

23 For he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

LUKE VIII.

16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad. Take heed therefore how ye hear; for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

MATTHEW XIII.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying; The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field. But while men slept, his enemy came, and sowed tares among the wheat; and went his way.

25 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him; Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them; An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him; Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

MARK IV.

26 And he said; So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground, and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself, first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

27 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. —

28 And he said; Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

29 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown

MATTHEW XIII.

29 But he said ; Nay ; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat 30 with them. Let both grow together until the harvest ; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers ; Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles, to burn them ; but gather the wheat into my barn.
 31 — Another parable put he forth unto them, saying ;
 The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and 32 sowed in his field. Which indeed is the least of all seeds ; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branch-33 es thereof. — Another parable spake he unto them ;
 The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole 34 was leavened. — All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he 35 not unto them ; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying ; “ I will open my mouth in parables ; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.”

MARK IV.

in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth ; 32 but when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shoot-eth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of 33 it. — And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. But 34 without a parable spake he not unto them ; and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

MATTHEW XIII.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house. And his disciples came unto him, saying; Declare 37 unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them; He that soweth the good seed is the 38 Son of man; the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of 39 the wicked one; the enemy, that sowed them, is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the 40 angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son 41 of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them 42 which do iniquity, and shall cast them into a furnace of 43 fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth, as the sun, in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him 44 hear. — Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and, for joy thereof, goeth and selleth all that he 45 hath, and buyeth that field. — Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls. But, when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and 46 sold all that he had, and bought it. — Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and 47 gathered of every kind; which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, 48 but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world. The angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from 49 among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. — Jesus saith unto them; Have ye understood all these things?
 50 They say unto him; Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them; Therefore every scribe, which is instructed in the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which 51 bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

MATTHEW XIII.

gogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said ; Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty 55 works ? Is not this the carpenter's son ? is not his mother called Mary ? and his brethren, James, and Jo-ses, and Simon, and Judas ?
56 and his sisters, are they not all with us ? whence then hath this man all these 57 things ? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them ; A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his 58 own house. And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

of her mother, said ; Give hearing him were astonished, saying ; From whence hath this man these things ? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him ?

even such mighty works are 3 wrought by his hands. Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Josces, and of Juda, and Simon ? and are not his sisters here with us ?
And they were offended at 4 him. But Jesus said unto them ; A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own 5 house. And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hand upon a few sick folk, and healed

because of their unbelief.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee ;
and when the daughter of 22 the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel ; Ask of me whatsoexceeding sorry, yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he 27 would not reject her. And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him the damsel gave it to her laid it in a tomb.

 themselves together unto Je-both what they had done, and what they had taught.

 they had no leisure so much

PART VI.

TO THE DEPARTURE OF JESUS FROM GALILEE.

MATTHEW XIV.

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame 2 of Jesus, and said unto his servants ; This is John the Baptist ; he is risen from the dead ; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

MARK VI.

14 And king Herod heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad,) and he said ; That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in 15 him. Others said ; That it is Elias. And others said ; That it is a prophet, even as one of the prophets.
16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said ; John, whom I beheaded, is risen from the dead.

MATTHEW XIV.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart ; and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude ; and was moved with compassion toward them, and he 15 healed their sick. — And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying ; This is a desert place,

MARK VI.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. — And the people saw them departing ; and many knew him ; and ran afoot thither out of all 34 cities. And when he came out, he saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them ; because they were as sheep not having a shepherd ; and he began to teach them many things.
35 — And when the day was now far spent, his disciples

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him ; and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was 8 risen from the dead ; and of some, that Elias had appeared ; and of others, that one of the old prophets was 9 risen again. And Herod said ; John have I beheaded ; but who is this of whom I hear such things ?
And he desired to see him.

LUKE IX.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done ;
and he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city 11 called Bethsaida. And the people, when they knew it, followed him. And he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that 12 had need of healing. And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him ; Send

JOHN VI.

1 After these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw the miracles, which he did on them that were dis-3 eased. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the passover, a feast of 5 the Jews, was nigh. When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip ; Whence shall we and the time is now past ; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves 16 victuals. But Jesus said unto them ; They need not depart ; give ye them to eat.

 17 And they say unto him ;
 We have here but five 18 loaves, and two fishes. He said ; Bring them hither to 19 me. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven,
 he blessed ; and brake, and gave the loaves to his 20 disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled ; and they took up of the fragments that remained 21 twelve baskets full. And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
 22 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes 23 away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray. And when the evening was come, he 24 was there alone. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves ; for the wind was 25 contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night, he went

 This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed ; 36 send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread ; for they have noth-37 ing to eat. He answered and said unto them ; Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him ; Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give 38 them to eat ? He saith unto them ; How many loaves have ye ? go and see. And when they knew, they say ; 39 Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.
 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.
 41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them ; and the two fishes divided 42 he among them all. And they did all eat, and were 43 filled. And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.
 44 And they that did eat of the loaves were five thousand men.

 into the ship, and to go to the the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals; for we are here in a desert place. But he said unto them; Give ye them to eat. And they said; We have no more but five loaves, and two fishes, except we should go and buy meat for all this people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples; Make them sit down by fifties in a company. And they did so, and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them; and brake, and gave to the disciples, to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled; and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

buy bread, that these may eat? (And this he said to prove him; for he himself knew, what he would do.) Philip answered him; Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him; There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes; but what are they among so many? And Jesus said; Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples; Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

 ples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying; It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.
 27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying; Be of good cheer, it is I; be not 28 afraid. And Peter answered him and said; Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.
 29 And he said; Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.
 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying; Lord, save 31 me! And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him; O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou 32 doubt? And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. Then they 33 that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying; Of a truth thou art the Son of God.
 34 And when they were gone over, they came into the 35 land of Gennesaret. And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to 47 was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea; and he alone on the land. And 48 he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them. And about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea; and would have passed by them.

 49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a 50 spirit, and cried out. For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediat-51 ly he talked with them, and saith unto them; Be of good cheer; it is I, be not afraid.
 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased. And they were sore 52 amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered not the mir- acle of the loaves; for their 53 heart was hardened. And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret; and drew to the shore.
 54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway 55 they knew him, and ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those 16 And when even was now come, his disciples went 17 down unto the sea. And they entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus 18 was not come to them. And the sea arose by reason of 19 a great wind that blew. So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship ; 20 and they were afraid. But he saith unto them ; It is I ; 21 be not afraid. Then they willingly received him into the ship ; and immediately the ship was at the land, whither they went.

try, they laid the sick in the

JOHN VI.

22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save one, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the ship, but that his disciples were gone away alone ; 23 (howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place, where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had 24 given thanks ;) when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they took shipping, and 25 came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. — And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said 26 unto him ; Rabbi, when camest thou hither ? Jesus answered them and said ; Verily, verily, I say unto you ; Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat 27 of the loaves, and were filled. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you ; 28 for him hath God the Father sealed. Then said they unto him ; What shall we do, that we might work the works of 29 God ? Jesus answered and said unto them ; This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.
30 They said therefore unto him ; What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee ? what dost thou 31 work ? Our fathers did eat manna in the desert, as it is writ-32 ten ; “ He gave them bread from heaven to eat.” — Then Jesus said unto them ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven ; but my Father giveth 33 you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the 34 world. Then said they unto him ; Lord, evermore give us 35 this bread. And Jesus said unto them ; I am the bread of life ; he that cometh to me, shall never hunger ; and he that 36 believeth on me, shall never thirst. But I said unto you,

JOHN VI.

37 that ye also have seen me, and believe not. All that the Father 38 giveth me shall come to me ; and him that cometh to me, I 39 will in no wise cast out ; for I came down from heaven, not 40 to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And 41 this is the will of him which hath sent me, that of all which 42 he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it 43 up again at the last day. For this is the will of him that sent 44 me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on 45 him, may have everlasting life ; and I will raise him up at 46 the last day. — The Jews then murmured at him, be-47 cause he said ; I am the bread which came down from 48 heaven ; and they said ; Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, 49 whose father and mother we know ? How is it then that he 50 saith ; I came down from heaven ? Jesus answered and 51 said unto them ; Murmur not among yourselves. No man 52 can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, 53 draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets ; “ And they shall be all taught of God.” Every man that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God ; he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead ; this is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven ; if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever. And the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. — The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying ; How can this man give us his flesh to eat ? Then Jesus said unto them ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh

JOHN VI.

of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in 54 you. Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath 55 eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For 56 my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, 57 and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.
 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven; not as your fathers did eat, and are dead; he that eateth of this 59 bread shall live for ever. These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, 61 said; This is a hard saying; who can hear it? When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he 62 said unto them; Doth this offend you? What and if ye shall 63 see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing. The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.
 64 But there are some of you that believe not; for Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who 65 should betray him. And he said; Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given 66 unto him of my Father. — From that time many of his disciples went back; and walked no more with him.
 67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve; Will ye also go away?
 68 Simon Peter answered him; Lord, to whom shall we 69 go? thou hast the words of eternal life; and we believe, 70 and are sure, that thou art the Holy One of God. Jesus answered them; Have not I chosen you twelve? and one of you is a devil. He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon; 71 for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

 ye made the commandment of God of none effect by crites! well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying;

 in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." 10 — And he called the multitude, and said unto them; Hear, and under-11 stand. Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defil-12 eth a man. — Then came his disciples, and said unto them; Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

 other things there be which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, and of brazen vessels, isees and scribes asked him; Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread 6 with defiled hands? He answered and said unto them; Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written; "This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far 7 from me. Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the com-laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups; and many other such like 9 things ye do. And he said unto them; Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your 10 own tradition. For Moses said; "Honour thy father and thy mother;" and; "Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death."

 15 Then answered Peter and said unto him ; Declare un-16 to us this parable. And Jesu said ; Are ye also yet 17 without understanding ? Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the 18 draught ? But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the 19 man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts ; murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness,

things which defile a man ;
 but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

 fer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother, livered ; and many such like things do ye. — 14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them ; Hearken unto me every one of you, and 15 understand. There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him ; but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the 16 man. If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

 17 — And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the 18 parable. And he saith unto them ; Are ye so without understanding also ? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without enter-eth into the man, it cannot 19 defile him ? because it en-tereth not into his heart, but into the belly ; and goeth out into the draught,

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts

 23 with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying ; Send her away, for she crieth after us. But he answered 24 and said ; I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying ; Lord, help me ! But he 25 answered and said ; It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.
 26 And she said ; Truth, Lord ; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their 23 all these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

 24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon ; and entered into a house, and would have no man know it ; but he could not be hid.
 25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his 26 feet ; (the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation ;) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto 27 her ; Let the children first be filled ; for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.
 28 And she answered and said unto him ; Yes, Lord ; yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
 29 And he said unto her ; For this saying go thy way ; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon 34 up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him; Ephphatha, that is, be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened; and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.
36 And he charged them that they should tell no man; but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it.
37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying; He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.
8 In those days, the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, he called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them;

And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying; Get thee behind me Satan; for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. — 34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them; Whosoever will follow after me, let him deny himself, and take up his

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it ; but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save Arise, and be not afraid.

 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no as they came down from the them, saying ; Tell the vis-

 Why then say the scribes came down from the mounthey should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from 10 the dead. — And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from 11 the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying ; Why say the scribes that he answered and told them ; Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things ;

 and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be

And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour. — Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said; Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them; Because of your unbelief. 19 He answereth, and saith unto them; O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him. And when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21 And he asked his father; How long is it ago, since this came unto him? and he said; Of a child; and ofttime it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him; but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee ; Come out of him, and enter no more 28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately ; Why could not we cast him out ?

29 And he said unto them ; This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee ; and he would not that any

1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying; Who is the greatest in 2 the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child un-

3 midst of them, and said; Ver-

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones ; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold 11 the face of my Father which is in heaven. For the Son of 12 man is come to save that which was lost. How think ye ?

tains, and goeth and seeketh that which is gone astray?
 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which 14 went not astray. Even so, it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.
 15 — Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone. If he 16 shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother; but if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more; that 17 in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, 18 tell it unto the church; but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publi-
 19 can. — Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye 20 shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching 21 any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are 22 gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

23 Then came Peter to him, and said; Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven 24 times? Jesus saith unto him; Not, I say unto thee, until seven times, but until seventy times seven. Therefore is 25 the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had be-26 gun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, 27 his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The 28 servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying; Lord have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then 29 the Lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same 30 servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and 31 took him by the throat, saying; Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying; Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry; and came and told unto their

34 I had pity on thee ? And his lord was wroth, and delivered 51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52 And he sent messengers before his face; and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready 53 for him. And they did not receive him, because his face 54 was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said; Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and 20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up 21 to worship at the feast. The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, 22 saying ; Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth 23 Andrew ; and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. And Jesus answered them, saying ; The hour is come, that the 24 Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone ; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it ; and he that hateth 26 his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal. If any shall also my servant be ; if any man serve me, him will my

I say ? Father, save me from this hour ? But for this 28 cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name.
Then came there a voice from heaven, saying ; “ I have 29 both glorified it, and will glorify it again.” The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered.
30 Others said ; An angel spake to him. Jesus answered and said ; This voice came not because of me, but for your 31 sakes. Now is the judgment of this world ; now shall the 32 prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up 33 from the earth, will draw all men unto me. This he said, 34 signifying what death he should die. — The people answered him ; We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever ; and how sayest thou, the Son of man must 35 be lifted up ? who is this Son of man ? Then Jesus said unto them ; Yet a little while is the light among you. Walk, while 37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him ; that the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake ; “ Lord, who hath believed our report ? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed ? ” Therefore they could not believe ; because that Esaias said again ; “ He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart ; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.” These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him. Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him ; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue ; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. — Jesus cried, and said ; He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me ; and he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not, (for I came

18 Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he 19 hungered. And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only;
and said unto it; Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of 17 And he taught, saying unto them; Is it not written; “My house shall be called, of all nations, the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.” And the

- 33 Hear another parable ; There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower ; and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
- 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.
- 35 Again, he sent other servants more than the first ; and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying ; They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves ; This is the heir ; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the lord, therefore, of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen ? They say unto him ; He will miserably destroy those wicked men ; and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

MARK XII.

- 1 And he began to speak unto them by parables ; A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower ; and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another servant ; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. And he sent another ; and him they killed ; and many others, beating some, and killing some.
- 6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying ; They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves ; This is the heir ; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

42 Jesus saith unto them; Did ye never read in the scriptures; "The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner; this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?" Therefore say I unto you, the kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. — And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. And have ye not read this scripture; "The stone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?" — And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them.

MATTHEW XXII.

1 And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by 2 parables, and said; The kingdom of heaven is like unto a 3 certain king, which made a marriage for his son, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to 4 the wedding; and they would not come. Again he sent forth other servants, saying; Tell them which are bidden; Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come unto the 5 marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways; 6 one to his farm, another to his merchandise. And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and 7 slew them. vants ; The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good ; and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment ; and he saith unto him ; Friend, how comest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment ? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants ; Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness ; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying; Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us, therefore, what thinkest thou? is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said; Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them; Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him; Cesar's. Then saith he unto them; Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled; and left him, and went their way.

Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. Jesus answered and said unto them; Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying; "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?" In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus answering, said unto them; Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels in heaven. And as touching the dead, that they rise, have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying; "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?" He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. Ye therefore do greatly err. — And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him; Which is the first commandment of all?  the law and the prophets.
 41 While the Pharisees were

MATTHEW XXIII.

14 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer; therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.
 15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.
 16 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than 17 yourselves. Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say; Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a 18 debtor. Ye fools and blind! for whether is greater? the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And; Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever

 22 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin; and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith. But these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other 24 undone. Ye blind guides! which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.
 26 Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with 31 them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them

 18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth 19 and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of 20 those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying ; Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents ; behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.
 21 His Lord said unto him ; Well done, thou good and faithful servant ; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things ; enter thou into the joy

then at my coming I should have received mine own with

- 3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair ; and the house was filled with the
- 4 odour of the ointment. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him ;
- 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor ?
- 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what
- 7 was put therein. Then said Jesus ; Let her alone ; against the day of my burying hath she kept this. For the poor always ye have with you, but me ye have not always.

preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went 15 unto the chief priests, and said unto them; What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for 16 thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him; Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?
18 And he said; Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him; The Master saith; My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him 11 unto them. And when they heard it, they were glad; and promised to give him money. And he sought, how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him; Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them; Go ye into the city; and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him; and wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good-man of the house; The Master saith; Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them; and they made ready the passover.

MATTHEW XXVI.

20 Now when even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

MARK XIV.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

LUKE XXII.

Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the 4 twelve. And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto 5 them. And they were glad; and covenanted to give him 6 money. And he promised; and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.
7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed; 8 and he sent Peter and John, saying; Go and prepare us the passover, that we may 9 eat. And they said unto him; Where wilt thou that 10 we prepare? And he said unto them; Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house 11 where he entereth in; and ye shall say unto the good man of the house; The master saith unto thee; Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And 12 he shall shew you a large upper room furnished; there 13 make ready. And they went and found as he had said unto them; and they made ready the passover.

LUKE XXII.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

LUKE XXII.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them 25 should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them ; The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefac-26 tors. But ye shall not be so ; but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger ; and he that is chief, as he 27 that doth serve. For whether is greater ? he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth ? is not he that sitteth at meat ? but 28 I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which 29 have continued with me in my temptations. And as my Father hath appointed unto me a kingdom, I appoint unto 30 you, that ye eat and drink at my table in my kingdom ; and ye shall sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

15 And he said unto them ; With desire I have desired to 16 eat this passover with you, before I suffer. For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in 17 the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said ; Take this, and divide it among your-18 selves. For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

JOHN XIII.

1 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in 2 the world, he loved them unto the end ; and supper being ended, (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Is-3 cariot, Simon's son, to betray him,) Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was 4 come from God, and went to God ; he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towel, and girded 5 himself ; after that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel 6 wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter ; and Peter saith unto him ; Lord, dost thou wash my 7 feet ? Jesus answered and said unto him ; What I do thou 8 knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him ; Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him ; If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

 9 Simon Peter saith unto him ; Lord, not my feet only, but 10 also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him ; He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean 11 every whit ; and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him ; therefore said he ; Ye are not all 12 clean. — So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto 13 them ; Know ye what I have done to you ? Ye call me ; 14 Master, and Lord ; and ye say well ; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also 15 ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an 16 example, that ye should do as I have donè to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, the servant is not greater than his 17 lord, neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If 18 ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all ; I know whom I have chosen ; but that the scripture may be fulfilled ; " He that eateth bread with me, 19 hath lifted up his heel against me." Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I 20 am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you ; He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me ; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

LUKE XXII.

21 But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with the son of man goeth as it was determined ; but woe unto that man by whom he gan to inquire among them-

JOHN XIII.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said ; Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
 22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

MATTHEW XXVI.

He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The son of man goeth, as it is written of him ; but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

MARK XIV.

20 And he answered and said unto them ; It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him ; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

JOHN XIII.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. He then, lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him ; 26 Lord, who is it ? Jesus answered ; He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon. 27 And after the sop, Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him ; That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him ; Buy those things that we have need of against the feast ; or that he should give something to the poor.

MATTHEW XXVI.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said ; Take, eat ; this is my body. 27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying ; Drink ye all of it ; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of

JOHN XIII.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out ;
and it was night.

31 When he was gone out, Jesus said ; Now is the Son of 32 man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and 33 shall straightway glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me ; and, as I said unto the Jews ; whither I go, ye cannot come ; so now I say unto 34 you. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another ; as I have loved you, that ye also love one 35 another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

 LUKE XXII.

that day, that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

JOHN XIV.

1 Let not your heart be troubled ; ye believe in God, be-2 lieve also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions ; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a 3 place for you ; and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself ; that where I 4 am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and 5 the way ye know. — Thomas saith unto him ; Lord, we know not whither thou goest ; and how can we know the 6 way ? Jesus saith unto him ; I am the way, and the truth, and the life ; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also ;
and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. — 8 Philip saith unto him ; Lord, shew us the Father, and it 9 sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him ; Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip ?
He that hath seen me hath seen the Father ; and how sayest 10 thou then ; Shew us the Father ? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me ? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself ; but the Father, that 11 dwelleth in me, he doth the works. Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me ; or else believe me for 12 the very works' sake. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do ; because I go unto 13 my Father, and whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that 14 will I do ; that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If 15 ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. — If ye 16 love me, keep my commandments ; and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he 17 may abide with you for ever ; even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him ; but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, 18 and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless ; I 19 will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more ; but ye see me ; because I live, ye shall live 20 also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, 21 and you in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me ; and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father ; and I will love him, 22 and will manifest myself to him. — Judas saith unto him (not Iscariot) ; Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy-23 self unto us, and not unto the world ? Jesus answered and said unto him ; If a man love me, he will keep my words ;

JOHN XIV.

and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, 24 and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings ; and the word which ye hear is 25 not mine, but the Father's which sent me. — These things 26 have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you ; but the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto 27 you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you ; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your 28 heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you ; I go away, and come again unto you.
If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I go unto the Fa-29 ther ; for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, 30 ye might believe. — Hereafter I will not talk much with you. For the prince of the world cometh, and hath noth-31 ing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do ; arise, let us go hence.

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away ;
and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may 3 bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word 4 which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you.
As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in 5 the vine ; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit ; for without me ye can 6 do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered ; and men gather them, and cast 7 them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it

JOHN XV.

8 shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that 9 ye bear much fruit, and be my disciples. — As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye 10 in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's command-11 ments, and abide in his love. — These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that 12 your joy might be full. This is my commandment, that ye 13 love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
 15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth; but I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made 16 known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
 17 These things I command you, that ye love one ano-18 ther. — If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me 19 before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, there-20 fore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you; The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if 21 they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, 22 because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin; but now they 23 have no cloak for their sin. He that hateth me, hateth my 24 Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin; but now have they 25 both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this com- eth to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in 26 their law; “They hated me without a cause.” — But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, (even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth 27 from the Father,) he shall testify of me. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the begin-16 ning. — These things have I spoken unto you, that ye 2 should not be offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues; yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you,

JOHN XVI.

3 will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I
5 was with you. But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me ; Whither goest thou ? But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled 7 your heart. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth ; it is expedient for you that I go away. For if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you ; but if I depart, I will 8 send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Of 9 sin, because they believe not on me ; of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more ; of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have 11 yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth. For he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, 14 and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me, for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 All things that the Father hath are mine. Therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall shew it unto you. A little while, and ye shall not see me ; and again, a little while, and 17 ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. — Then said some of his disciples among themselves ; What is this that he saith unto us ; A little while, and ye shall not see me ; and again, a little while, and ye shall see me ; and ; Be-18 cause I go to the Father ? They said therefore ; What is this that he saith, a little while ? We cannot tell what he 19 saith. Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them ; Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said ; A little while, and ye shall not see me ; and again, a 20 little while, and ye shall see me ? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice ; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be 21 turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come ; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for 22 joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow ; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you ; and in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will 24 give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name ; ask 25 and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. — These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs ; the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs ; but I shall 26 shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my name ; and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Fa-27 ther for you ; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world ; 29 again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. — His disciples said unto him ; Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and 30 speakest no proverb. Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee ; by 31 this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus 32 answered them ; Ye do now believe ; behold, the hour cometh, yea is now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone ; and yet I am not 33 alone, because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye have tribulation ; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

17 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said ; Father, the hour is come ; glorify thy 2 Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee ; as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as 3 many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ 4 whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth ; 5 I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do ; and now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. — 6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world ; thine they were and thou gavest them 7 me ; and they have kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee ; 8 for I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me ; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst 9 send me. I pray for them ; I pray not for the world, but for 10 them which thou hast given me, for they are thine ; and all mine are thine, and thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them.

 11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thine own name, which thou hast given me ; that they may 12 be one, as we are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name ; those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that 13 the scripture might be fulfilled. And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have 14 my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them thy word ; and the world hath hated them, because they are not 15 of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not, that thou shouldest take them out of the world, 16 but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They 17 are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanc-18 tify them through thy truth ; thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them 19 into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. — 20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall 21 believe on me through their word ; that they all may be one ; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us ; that the world may believe that thou hast sent 22 me. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them ; that they may be one, even as we are one ; 23 (I in them, and thou in me ;) that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, 24 and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am ; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me ; for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.
 25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee ; but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent 26 me. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it ; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

And he said unto him; Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said; I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. — And he said unto them; When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said; Nothing. Then said he unto them; But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me; “And he was reckoned among the transgressors.” For the things concerning me have an end. And they said; Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them; It is enough.

 38 Then saith he unto them; My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death; tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying; O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter; What! could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying ; Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he ; hold him

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not ; but the scriptures must be fulfilled. And they all forsook him and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body ; and the young men laid hold on

47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto 48 Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him; Judas, betrayest thou the Son of 49 man with a kiss? When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him; Lord, shall we smite with the sword?
 50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
 51 And Jesus answered and said; Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and 52 healed him. — Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him; Ye be come out as against a thief, with swords and 53 staves; when I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his 3 disciples. Judas then having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons. — 4 Jesus therefore knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth and said unto them; Whom seek many false witnesses came.

 At the last came two false

- 54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.
- 55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said; This man was also with him.
- 57 And he denied him, saying; Woman, I know him not.
- 58 And after a little while another saw him, and said; Thou art also of them. And Peter said; Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying; Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.
- 60 And Peter said; Man, I know not what thou sayest.
- said Jesus unto Peter; Put up the sword into the sheath; the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?
- 12 Then the band, and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound
- 13 him, and led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest
- 14 that same year. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
- 15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.
- 16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in smote him with the palms of the palace. And a damsel came unto him, saying ; Thou them all, saying ; I know 71 not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that

 Peter warming himself, she looked upon him and said ;
 And thou also wast with Je-neither understand I what

And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.
 61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him; Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.
 63 And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him; and when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying; Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?
 65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.
 66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying; If thou art the Christ, tell us. And he said unto them; If I tell you ye will not believe; and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God. — Then said they all; Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them; Ye say swered him; I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither all the Jews resort, and in secret have I said nothing; why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them; behold, they know what I said.

 22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying; Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him; If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me? Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.
 25 — And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him; Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said; I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith; Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter then denied again; and immediately the cock crew.

MATTHEW XXVI.

Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying; I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And Peter remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him; Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

MARK XIV.

70 This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter; Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying; I know not this man of whom ye speak. 72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him; Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the 4 thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying; I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. 5 And they said; What is that to us? see thou to that. And the voices of them, and of the chief priests, 24 prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as 25 they required. And he released him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged 2 him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple 3 robe, and said; Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 — Pilate went forth again, and saith unto them; Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name ; him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall ; and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots. And sitting down they watched him there. And they set up over his head his accusation written ;

36 “ THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him ; one on the right hand, and another on the left. — And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying ; Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself ; if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests, mocking him, with the scribes and elders,

And when they had crucified him, they part his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over ; “ THE KING OF THE JEWS.” And with him they crucified two thieves ; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith ; “ And he was numbered with the transgressors.” And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying ; Ah ; thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days ; save thyself, and come down from the cross. 28 But Jesus turning unto them, said; Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me; but weep for yourselves and for your children. For, behold, the days are coming in the which they shall say; Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains; Fall on us; and to the hills; Cover us. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying; Eli, Eli; lama sabachthani? that is to say; My God, my God; why hast thou forsaken me?  his mother ; Woman, behold thy Son ! Then saith he to

Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs; but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. 35 — And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also might believe. MATTHEW XXVIII.

1 In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Je-48 rusalem. And ye are wit-49 nesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city, until ye be endued with power from on high.

JOHN XX.

21 Then said Jesus to them again; Peace be unto you; as my 22 Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them; Receive 23 ye the Holy Ghost. Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

MARK XVI.

15 And he said unto them; Go ye into all the world, 16 and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not 17 shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall 18 speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

JOHN XX.

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not 25 with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him; We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them; Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my 26 hand into his side, I will not believe. — And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood 27 in the midst, and said; Peace be unto you. Then saith he

JOHN XX.

to Thomas ; Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side ; and 23 be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said 29 unto him ; My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him ; Because thou has seen me, thou hast believed ; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

XXI.

1 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. And on this wise shewed he him- 2 self. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the 3 sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them ; I go a fishing. They say unto him ;
 We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a 4 ship immediately, and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore ; 5 but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Then Jesus saith unto them ; Children, have ye any meat ? They an-6 swered him ; No. And he said unto them ; Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude 7 of fishes. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter ; It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him ; for 8 he was naked ; and did cast himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the 9 net with fishes. As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and 10 bread. Jesus saith unto them ; Bring of the fish which 11 ye have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three ;
 and for all there were so many, yet was not the net bro-12 ken. — Jesus saith unto them ; Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him ; Who art thou ? know-13 ing that it was the Lord. Jesus cometh and taketh bread, 14 and giveth them, and fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
 15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter ; Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these ? He saith unto him ; Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee.

JOHN XXI.

16 He saith unto him ; Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time ; Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me ? He saith unto him ; Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I 17 love thee. He saith unto him ; Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time ; Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me ? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time ; Lovest thou me ? And he said unto him ; Lord, thou knowest all things ; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus 18 saith unto him ; Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, when thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest ; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and 19 carry thee whither thou wouldest not. This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had 20 spoken this, he saith unto him ; Follow me. — Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following ; (which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said ; Lord, 21 which is he that betrayeth thee ?) Peter seeing him, saith 22 to Jesus ; Lord, and what shall this man do ? Jesus saith unto him ; If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to 23 thee ? follow thou me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die. Yet Jesus said not unto him ; He shall not die ; but ; If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee ?
 24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things ; and we know that his testimony is true.

MATTHEW XXVIII.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a 17 mountain, where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him ; but some doubted.
 18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying ; All power is 19 given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the 20 Son, and of the Holy Ghost ; teaching them to observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded you. And, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

51 them. And it came to pass while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and 52 carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with 53 great joy ; and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

JOHN XX.

30 And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of 31 his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of God, and that believing ye might have life through his name.

XXI.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written.

PART IX.

FACTS AND DISCOURSES, OF UNCERTAIN DATE.

LUKE VII.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him ; and he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to 37 meat. And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's 38 house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment, and stood at his feet behind him, weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears ; and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and 39 kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now, when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying ; This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is 40 that toucheth him ; for she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him ; Simon, I have somewhat to say unto 41 thee. And he saith ; Master, say on. There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors ; the one owed five hundred 42 pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, 43 which of them will love him most ? Simon answered and said ; I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he 44 said unto him ; Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon ; Seest thou this woman ?
I entered into thine house ; thou gavest me no water for my feet ; but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped 45 them with her hair. Thou gavest me no kiss ; but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my 46 feet. Mine head with oil thou didst not anoint ; but this 47 woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for

LUKE VII.

she loved much ; but to whom little is forgiven, the same 48 loveth little. And he said unto her ; Thy sins are forgiven.
 49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say within 50 themselves ; Who is this that forgiveth sins also ? And he said to the woman ; Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace.

XI.

1 And it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him ; Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.
 2 And he said unto them ; When ye pray, say ; Father, hal-3 loved be thy name ; thy kingdom come ; give us day by 4 day our daily bread ; and forgive us our sins, for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us ; and lead us not in-5 to temptation. — And he said unto them ; Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, 6 and say unto him ; Friend, lend me three loaves ; for a friend of mine in his journey has come to me, and I have 7 nothing to set before him ? And he from within shall answer and say ; Trouble me not ; the door is now shut, and my 8 children are with me in bed ; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will 9 rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you ; Ask, and it shall be given you ; seek, and ye shall 10 find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh, receiveth ; and he that seeketh, findeth ; 11 and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone ? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a 12 serpent ? or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scor-13 pion ? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him ?
 37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him. And he went in and sat down to meat.
 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not 39 first washed before dinner. And the Lord said unto him ; Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but your inward part is full of ravening and 40 wickedness. Ye fools, did not he that made that which is 41 without, make that which is within also ? But rather give alms of such things as ye have ; and behold, all things are clean

LUKE XI.

42 unto you. But woe unto you Pharisees, for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs ; and pass over judgment and the love of God. These ought ye to have done, and 43 not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees, for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greet-44 ings in the markets. Woe unto you, for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not 45 aware of them. — Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him ; Master, thus saying, thou re-46 proachest us also. And he said ; Woe unto you also, ye lawyers ! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne ; and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your 47 fingers. Woe unto you, for ye build the sepulchres of the 48 prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear witness, that ye allow the deeds of your fathers ; for they in-49 deed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. Therefore also said the wisdom of God ; I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and perse-50 cute ; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this 51 generation ; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple. Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this gen-52 eration. Woe unto you lawyers, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge ; ye entered not in yourselves, and 53 them that were entering in ye hindered. — And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak 54 of many things ; laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth that they might accuse him. — 12 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples ; First of all, beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is 2 hypocrisy. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be 3 revealed ; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore, whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light ; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, 4 shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops. And I say unto you, my friends ; Be not afraid of them that kill the body, 5 and after that, have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear ; fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell ; yea, I say unto

LUKE XII.

6 you, fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two far-7 things? and not one of them is forgotten before God. But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many spar-8 rows. — Also I say unto you; Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess be-9 fore the angels of God. But he that denieth me before 10 men, shall be denied before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but unto him that blasphemeth against the 11 Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought, how or what thing ye shall answer, or 12 what ye shall say; for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him; Master, speak 14 to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. And he said unto him; Man, who made me a judge, or a divider 15 over you? — And he said unto them; Take heed, and beware of covetousness; for a man's life consisteth not in 16 the abundance of the things which he possesseth. — And he spake a parable unto them, saying; The ground of a 17 certain rich man brought forth plentifully. And he thought within himself, saying; What shall I do? because I have no 18 room where to bestow my fruits. And he said; This will I do; I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and 19 there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods; and I will say to my soul; Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for 20 many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him; Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; then whose shall those things be which 21 thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for 22 himself, and is not rich towards God. — And he said unto his disciples; Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, 23 what ye shall put on. The life is more than meat; and 24 the body is more than raiment. Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have store-house, nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much more are 25 ye better than the fowls? And which of you with taking 26 thought can add to his stature one cubit? If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for 27 the rest? Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not. And yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all 28 his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe 29 you, O ye of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; neither be ye of doubtful mind.

LUKE XII.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after;
and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these 31 things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God, and all 32 these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the king-33 dom. Sell that ye have, and give alms. Provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens 34 that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there will your 35 heart be also. — Let your loins be girded about, 36 and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open 37 unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching; verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit 38 down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third 39 watch, and find them so; blessed are those servants. And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and 40 not have suffered his house to be broken through. Be ye therefore ready also; for the Son of man cometh at an 41 hour when ye think not. — Then Peter said unto him; Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said; Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to 43 give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so 44 doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler 45 over all that he hath. But and if that servant say in his heart; My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to 46 be drunken; the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware; and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his 47 portion with the unbelievers. And that servant which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did accord-48 ing to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; but he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have 49 committed much, of him they will ask the more. — I am come to send fire on the earth; and how I wish that it were 50 already kindled! But I have a baptism to be baptized with; 51 and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, 52 nay, but rather division. For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two 53 against three. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against 54 her mother-in-law. — And he said also to the people;

LUKE XII.

 When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye 55 say; There cometh a shower; and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say; There will be heat; and it 56 cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it, that ye do not dis-57 cern this time? — Yea, and why even of yourselves 58 judge ye not what is right? When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, 59 and the officer cast thee into prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their 2 sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them; Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, 3 because they suffered such things? I tell you, nay; but 4 except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in 5 Jerusalem? I tell you, nay; but except ye repent, ye shall 6 all likewise perish. — He spake also this parable;
 A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and 7 he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard; Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find

LUKE XIII.

- 8 none ; cut it down ; why cumbereth it the ground ? And he answering said unto him ; Lord, let it alone this year also, 9 till I shall dig about it, and dung it ; and if it bear fruit, well ; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.
- 10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years ; and was bowed together, and 11 could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her ; Woman, thou art 12 loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her ; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.
- 13 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people ; There are six days in which men ought to work ; in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the 14 sabbath-day. The Lord then answered him, and said ; Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to 15 watering ? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, 16 be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day ? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed ; and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
- 17 Then said he ; Unto what is the kingdom of God like ? and 18 whereunto shall I resemble it ? It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden ; and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowls of the air 19 lodged in the branches of it. — And again he said ; 20 Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God ? It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

XIV.

- 1 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that 2 they watched him. And behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus answering, 3 spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying ; Is it lawful 4 to heal on the sabbath-day ? And they held their peace. 5 And he took him, and healed him and let him go. And he answered them, saying ; Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on

LUKE XIV.

6 the sabbath-day? And they could not answer him again to 7 these things. — And he put forth a parable to those 8 which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out 9 the chief rooms, saying unto them; When thou art bidden 10 of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; 11 lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; 12 and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee; Give 13 this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the low-14 est room. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in 15 the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he 16 may say unto thee; Friend, go up higher. Then shalt 17 thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat 18 with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; 19 and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. — Then 20 said he also to him that bade him; When thou makest a din-21 ner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither 22 thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid 23 thee again, and a recompense be made thee. But when 24 thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, 25 the blind; and thou shalt be blessed, for they cannot recom-26 pense thee; for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrec-27 tion of the just. — And when one of them that 28 sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him; 29 Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
30 Then said he unto him; A certain man made a great supper, 31 and bade many. And he sent his servant at supper-time, to 32 say to them that were bidden; Come, for all things are now 33 ready. And they all with one consent began to make ex-34 cuse. The first said unto him; I have bought a piece of 35 ground, and I must needs go and see it; I pray thee, have 36 me excused. And another said; I have bought five yoke 37 of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee, have me ex-38 cused. And another said; I have married a wife, and there-39 fore I cannot come. So that servant came, and shewed his 40 lord these things. Then the master of the house, being 41 angry, said to his servant; Go out quickly into the streets 42 and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the 43 maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said; 44 Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is 45 room. And the lord said unto the servant; Go out into 46 the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, 47 that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, that 48 none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my 49 supper.

LUKE XIV.

25 And there went great multitudes with him ; and he turned, 26 and said unto them ; If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disci-27 ple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come 28 after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth 29 the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it ? lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, 30 all that behold it begin to mock him, saying ; ' This man 31 began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand ?
 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth 33 an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he 34 hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt is good ; but if the salt 35 have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned ? It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dung-hill ; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

51 Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners, 2 for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying ; ' This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with 3 them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying ; 4 What man of you having a hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilder-5 ness, and go after that which is lost until he find it ? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoic-6 ing ; and when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them ; ' Rejoice with me, 7 for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons which 8 need no repentance. — Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently, till she find 9 it ? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying ; ' Rejoice with me ; for I 10 have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of 11 God over one sinner that repenteth. — And he said ; A 12 certain man had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father ; Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country ; and there

14 wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land ; and he

15 began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to 16 feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat ; and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said ; How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare ! and

18 I perish here with hunger. I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him ; Father, I have sinned against 19 Heaven, and before thee ; I am no more worthy to be called thy son ; make me as one of thy hired servants. And he

20 arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion ; and 21 ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him ; Father, I have sinned against Heaven and in thy sight ; and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants ; Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on 23 his feet. And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it ; and 24 let us eat and be merry ; for this my son was dead, and is alive again ; he was lost, and is found. And they began to 25 be merry. Now his elder son was in the field ; and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him ; Thy brother is come ; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he 27 hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

28 And he answering said to his father ; Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment ; and yet thou never gavest me

29 a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

30 And he said unto him ; Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad, for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again ; and was lost, and is found.

LUKE XVI.

1 And he said also unto his disciples ; There was a certain rich man, which had a steward ; and the same was accused 2 unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said unto him ; How is it that I hear this of thee ?
give an account of thy stewardship ; for thou mayest be no 3 longer steward. Then the steward said within himself ; What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the 4 stewardship ? I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the steward-5 ship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the 6 first ; How much owest thou unto my lord ? And he said ;
A hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him ; Take 7 thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another ; And how much owest thou ? And he said ;
A hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him ; 8 Take thy bill, and write four-score. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely ; for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the 9 children of light. And I say unto you ; Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness ; that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.
10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much ; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in 11 much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true 12 riches ? and if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own ?
13 No servant can serve two masters ; for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all 15 these things ; and they derided him. And he said unto them ; Ye are they which justify yourselves before men ; but God knoweth your hearts ; for that which is highly es-16 teemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John ; since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into 17 it. And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one 18 tittle of the law to fail. Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery ; and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth 19 adultery. — There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every 20 day. And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, 21 which was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table ; 22 moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was 23 buried. And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

LUKE XVI.

 24 And he cried, and said ; Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue ; for I am tormented in this 25 flame. But Abraham said ; Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things ; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
 26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would pass from hence to you, cannot, neither can they pass to us, that would come from 27 thence. Then he said ; I pray thee therefore, father, that 28 thou wouldest send him to my father's house ; for I have five brethren ; that he may testify unto them, lest they also 29 come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him ;
 They have Moses and the prophets ; let them hear them.
 30 And he said ; Nay, father Abraham ; but if one went unto 31 them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him ; If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

17 Then said he unto the disciples ; It is impossible but that offences will come ; but woe unto him through whom 2 they come ! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he 3 should offend one of these little ones. Take heed to yourselves. — If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke 4 him ; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again, saying ; I repent ; thou shalt forgive him. — 5 And the apostles said unto the Lord ; Increase our faith.
 6 And the Lord said ; If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree ; Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea ; and it should 7 obey you. But which of you having a servant ploughing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him, when he is come from the 8 field ; Go immediately and sit down to meat ? Will he not rather say unto him ; Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken ; 9 and afterward thou shalt eat and drink ? Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded ? I 10 trow not. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say ; We are unprofitable servants ; we have done that which was our duty to do.

LUKE XVII.

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said ; 21 The kingdom of God cometh not with observation ; neither shall they say ; Lo here, or, lo there ; for behold, the 22 kingdom of God is within you. — And he said unto the disciples ; The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man ; and ye shall not 23 see it. And they shall say to you ; See here, or, see there ; 24 go not after them, nor follow them. For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven ; so shall the Son of man be in his 25 day. But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected 26 of this generation. And as it was in the days of Noe, so 27 shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark ; and the 28 flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot ; they did eat, they drank, they 29 bought, they sold, they planted, they builded ; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone 30 from heaven, and destroyed them all ; even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, 31 he which shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away ; and he that 32 is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember 33 Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life, shall lose it ; and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it. I tell you ; In that night there shall be two men in one bed ; 35 one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. Two women shall be grinding together ; the one shall be taken and the other left.
37 And they answered and said unto him ; Where, Lord ? And he said unto them ; Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.
18 er. — And he spake a parable unto them to this 2 end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint, saying ;
There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither

LUKE XVIII.

3 regarded man. And there was a widow in that city ; and she came unto him, saying ; Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while. But afterward he said within himself ; Though I fear not God, nor regard man ; yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her ; lest by 6 her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said ;

7 Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them ? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth ?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others ;

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray ; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood by himself, and prayed thus ; God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as

12 this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven ; but smote upon 14 his breast, saying ; God, be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other ; for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

CALENDAR OF OUR LORD'S MINISTRY.

A. D. 29.*

Jan.

20. Jesus is BAPTIZED and retires to the desert.

Mar.

2. The Priests and Levites come to the Baptist.

3. Christ returns to him, at Bethabara.

4. John and Andrew follow Jesus.

5. Our Lord calls Philip and Nathanael.

6-8. The marriage festival at Cana. Our Lord's FIRST MIRACLE.

9. Jesus goes to Capernaum.

19-25. First Passover. Christ drives the traders from the Temple; converses with Nicodemus.

26. Our Lord goes into the neighbouring country.

Apr.

9.† The walk through the corn-fields.

20. Conference at Sychar with the Samaritan woman.

27. Jesus at Cana cures the sick youth at Capernaum.

May.

8-14. Pentecost. Jesus at Jerusalem.

14.† Cure of the infirm man at Bethesda.

* The reader is requested to observe, that the dates in this Calendar are, to a considerable degree, conjectural; but that the order of the events does not depend upon the correctness of them. The dates of the Passover (and consequently of the other Festivals) have been ascertained by calculation; and admitting their accuracy, sufficient accuracy may have been obtained in adapting English dates to the following arrangement. In a few cases, besides the Festivals, this adaptation is founded on express testimony; but more usually it is founded on a calculation of the time necessary for the several events.—Hence the dates can only be an approximation to the truth; but if they prove consistent with internal evidence, and with what external evidence we possess, they will materially assist the mind in forming a distinct view of the order of events, and in retracing the several parts of it."

† Jewish Sabbaths.

A. D. 29.

May.

15. Christ departs into Galilee, spending the time during Herod's residing in Galilee, and during the intense heat of the summer months, in comparative retirement, till the Feast of Tabernacles.
